Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000: MINISTRY OF DEFENCE POLICE: QUARANTINE REQUESTS.

We refer to your email dated 27 January 2020 to the Ministry of Defence Police which was acknowledged on the 28 January 2020.

We are treating your email as a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA 2000).

In your email you requested the following information:

“Please supply the number of quarantine requests made by the Home Office/UK Border Force to your force where individuals are thought to be failing to comply with self-isolation requirements under the Health Protection (Coronavirus, International Travel) (England) Regulations 2020.

Please outline what police activity was taken.

In those cases in which police were deployed to an address, please advise how many cases resulted in doors being answered by occupants. Of those, please advise how many fines were issued and how many were assessed as needing no further action. Of the cases in which there was no answer, can you please advise how many were attended by police on a second occasion. How many were referred back to the Home Office/UK Border Force, and how many were fined?”

A search for information has now been completed by the Ministry of Defence Police and I can confirm that we do hold information in scope of your request.
