& Immigration

FLR(GT)

Version 03/2019

Application for: 1) further leave to remain in the UK by a person granted limited leave outside the Immigration Rules under the dedicated Grenfell immigration policy for survivors and other individuals directly affected by the fire, and 2) a Biometric Immigration Document

In accordance with paragraph 34 of the Immigration Rules, this form is a specified form for the purpose of the Immigration Rules as of 18 March 2019 and must be used for all applications made on or after that date for the purposes stated on this page and listed in section 3.

Please check on the UK Visas and Immigration webpage at www.gov.uk/government/organisations/uk-visas-and-immigration that this is the current form for use on the date that you apply.

This form is to be used for applications made on or after 18 March 2019

Please read the guidance notes at the end of this form before completing it.

The Home Office will use the personal information you provide to consider your application. We may also share your information with other public and private sector organisations in the UK and overseas. For more detail please see the Privacy Notice for the Border, Immigration and Citizenship system at www.gov.uk/government/publications/personal-information-use-in-borders-immigration-and-citizenship. This also sets out your rights under the Data Protection Act 2018 and explains how you can access your personal information and complain if you have concerns about how we are using it.

This form has been archived as the application type no longer exists.

In accordance with paragraph 34 of the Immigration Rules, this form is a specified form for the purpose of the Immigration Rules as of 18 March 2019 and must be used for all applications made on or after that date for the purposes stated on this page.

Please read the separate guidance document listed below before making your application:

- guidance notes at the end of this form

If you do not already have this documents, you can get it from our website at www.gov.uk/government/organisations/uk-visas-and-immigration

Our application forms change periodically. If you obtain this form some time before applying, please check that it is still the version which must be used when you are ready to apply.

Do not complete this form if you are applying for further leave to remain in any category other than the dedicated Grenfell Tower immigration policy for survivors and other individuals directly affected by the fire.

Do not use this form if you are a relative of a survivor. If you are a relative seeking to remain in the UK for more than 6 months, you should apply for leave to remain based on family or private life; or apply for leave outside of the Immigration Rules on compelling compassionate grounds. Please see our website for further information on how to apply at: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/uk-visas-and-immigration

You must apply by post if you are using this form, send your application to the following address:

If you have tried to obtain a national passport, national identity card or travel document and have been refused, you must explain the reasons below:

This form has been archived as the application type no longer exists.

Your application will be considered in accordance with the published Home Office instruction on the dedicated Grenfell Tower immigration policy. The Home Office Instruction may be viewed on the Home Office website: www.gov.uk/government/publications/grenfell-tower-fire-handling-immigration-cases. We will make a decision about whether or not you qualify for further leave to remain in the UK on the basis of the information about your circumstances that you have already provided and any new information which you submit with this application form.

There is no need to send us any information that you provided when you were last granted limited leave under the dedicated Grenfell immigration policy.

You should tell us immediately if there are any changes in your circumstances that are relevant to this application, or if any new information relevant to this application becomes available. See the guidance notes (note 10).

If you wish to send us any documents, you should send a description of what it is and an English translation if it is not in English.

Definitions

For the purposes of answering questions 4.7 to 4.12, the following information provides guidance on actions which may constitute war crimes, crimes against humanity, genocide, or terrorist activities.

This guidance is not exhaustive. The full definitions of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide can be found in Schedule 8 of the International Criminal Court Act 2001 at www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2001/17/schedule/8 or purchased from The Stationery Office (telephone 0870 600 5522). It is your responsibility to satisfy yourself that you are familiar with the definitions and can answer the questions accurately on behalf of yourself and any dependants who are applying with you.

War crimes

Grave breaches of the Geneva Conventions committed during an armed conflict. This includes an internal armed conflict and an international armed conflict. The types of acts that may constitute a war crime include willful killing, torture, extensive destruction of property not justified by military necessity, unlawful deportation, the intentional targeting of civilians and the taking of hostages.

Crimes against humanity

Acts committed at any time (not just during armed conflict) as part of a widespread or systematic attack, directed against any civilian population with knowledge of the attack. This would include offences such as murder, torture, rape, severe deprivation of liberty in violation of fundamental rules of international law and enforced disappearance of persons.

Genocide

Acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnic, racial or religious group.

Terrorist activities

Any act committed, or the threat of action, designed to influence a government or intimidate the public and made for the purposes of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause and that involves serious violence against a person; that may endanger another person's life; creates a serious risk to the health or safety of the public; involves serious damage to property; is designed to seriously disrupt or interfere with an electronic system.

Organisations concerned in terrorism

An organisation is concerned in terrorism if it commits or participates in acts of terrorism; prepares for terrorism; promotes or encourages terrorism (including the unlawful glorification of terrorism); or is otherwise concerned in terrorism.

Section 5 - Biometric residence permits

It is mandatory to complete this section. If it is not complete, the application will be invalid and will be returned to you.

In accordance with regulation 3 of the Immigration (Biometric Registration) (Amendment) Regulations 2012 anyone applying for leave to remain in the UK in the categories for which this application form is specified must also apply for a biometric immigration document, otherwise known as a biometric residence permit. This also applies to applications made at the same time by any dependants of the main applicant. Further information about biometric residence permits is available on page 17.

If you have a current grant of leave on a Biometric Residence Permit you must provide your Biometric Residence Permit for the application to be valid and complete.

Section 6 - Documents

Documents

You must provide the documents specified below which are relevant to your application. If you do not, we reserve the right to decide your application on the basis of the information and documents provided. Tick the relevant boxes to show the documents you are providing.

All applicants must provide the relevant documents specified below under Passports and Immigration.

Please note that in some cases, we may have to ask for other documents in addition to those specified in this form.

Passports and Immigration

All applicants

Your original valid passport or a national identity card if you hold these.

The original valid passport, national identity card or travel document for each dependant included in section 3 and applying for an extension of stay in the UK with you.

Your Biometrics residence permit if you have been issued with one since entering the UK. See Biometrics residence permit note in the box below.

The Biometrics residence permit for each dependant included in section 3 and applying for an extension of stay in the UK with you if they have been issued with them since entering the UK. See note 11.

Biometrics residence permit note:

Residence permits have been issued to certain foreign nationals since 25 November 2008 when they have been given permission to remain in the UK. Unless reported lost or stolen, they should be enclosed with any application for further permission to remain in the UK (see note 11).

Full birth certificates of any dependent children showing parents' names.

Please list the documents you are providing in the space below:

This form has been archived as the application type no longer exists.

If you cannot provide all the documents that we have asked for, please still complete and submit this application form, but use this space to explain why some of the items cannot be sent in. You should also tell us when you will provide them.

Empty box for providing information about missing documents.

Is there any other information concerning you or your family which you wish to be considered as part of your application? If so, please give details in the box provided. Please continue on a separate sheet if necessary and provide any relevant documentary evidence relating to any issues you raise.

Large empty box for providing additional information.

This form has been archived as the application type no longer exists.

Section 7 - Declaration

You must now read the declaration below and sign it. This must be signed by you (the applicant) and not by a representative or other person acting on your behalf. If you are under 18, your parent or guardian may sign.

It is mandatory for the declaration to be signed. Please note that this application will be invalid if it is not signed as specified above.

I hereby apply for an extension of stay in the UK for myself and any dependants listed in this form.

The information I have given in this form is complete and is true to the best of my knowledge.

I confirm that if, before this application is decided, there is a material change in my circumstances or new information relevant to this application becomes available, I will inform the Home Office.

I understand that all information provided by me to the Home Office will be treated in confidence; that it may be disclosed to other government departments, agencies, local authorities, the police, foreign governments and other bodies for immigration purposes or to enable them to perform their functions; and that, if such bodies provide the Home Office with any information about me which may be relevant for immigration purposes, it may be used in reaching a decision on my application.

I understand that my details may in certain circumstances be passed to fraud prevention agencies to prevent and detect fraud and money laundering. I also understand that such agencies may provide the Home Office with information about me. Further details explaining when information may be passed to or from fraud prevention agencies and how that information may be used can be obtained from the Home Office website.

I understand that documents provided in support of this application will be checked for authenticity; and that false documents will be retained and may result in my application being refused and in my prosecution and subsequent removal from the UK.

I understand that the Home Office may also use the information provided by me for training purposes.

I am aware that it is an offence under the Immigration Act 1971, as amended by the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 and the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002, to make to a person acting in execution of any of those Acts a statement or representation which I know to be false or do not believe to be true, or to obtain or to seek to obtain leave to remain in the UK by means which include deception.

I understand that if I am informing the Home Office that I have changed my gender, these details may in certain circumstances be shared with other Home Office colleagues. I consent to this, where necessary and understand that this information will only be shared in limited circumstances relating to identity and security in line with Section 22 of the Gender Recognition Act. I am aware they will otherwise be treated in confidence and that my rights under the Equality Act 2010, Data Protection Act 2018 and Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights will be unaffected.

Your personal checklist for Form FLR(GT) (further leave under the dedicated Grenfell Tower immigration policy).

Please make the following checks before submitting your application. They should help to ensure that it is complete.

- Are you sure that Form FLR(GT) is the right form for your application? See note 1 of the guidance notes.
- Do you have no more than 1 month until your current leave expires? See note 1 of the guidance notes.
- Have you completed all sections of the form correctly as instructed? See note 4 of the guidance notes
- If you have used additional sheets of paper have you attached them?
- Have you sent us all of the following documents which you or your dependants hold, listed in section 6:
 - original valid national passport(s)
 - Immigration Status Document(s) (ASL.2151, ASL.2152 or ASL.2150)
 - relevant birth certificates
- Have you retained photocopies of all the documents you will send with this application?
- If you are unable at present to send us any of the documents listed in section 6, have you given an explanation and said when you will be able to send them?
- Have you signed and dated the declaration in section 7 of the form?

Finally, please make sure that the application is addressed appropriately as on page 1 of this application form and in note 4 of the guidance notes.

This form has been archived as the application type no longer exists.
Form FLR(GT) (Further Leave to Remain under the dedicated Grenfell Tower immigration policy):

Guidance notes and other relevant information

These notes and other information are intended to help you make an application for a further period of leave outside the Immigration Rules under the dedicated Grenfell immigration policy

1. For which applications must you use Form FLR(GT)?

You have to be in the UK to make an application using this form. Please do not send in your application more than 1 month before your current leave expires, or it is likely to be refused as you will not have completed the required period of leave if you apply too early.

You can use this form to make your own application and an application on behalf of any dependants.

2. Making sure that your application is complete?

This is very important. The decision on your application is likely to be delayed if you do not provide all the necessary information and documentation. To make sure that your application is complete, you need to do the following:

- answer all the questions and complete or tick any boxes that apply to you personally, as well as to any dependants included in the application
- provide the documents needed in support of your application and those of any dependants included in the form - you should retain photocopies of any documents you submit with this application
- if you cannot provide a document at present, please explain the reasons and tell us when you will be able to let us have the missing item
- sign and date the declaration in section 7

3. Completing form FLR(GT)

Please write in English in block letters and in black ink when completing the form. The notes below are designed to help you complete each section.

Section 1 must be completed in full in all cases. If the application includes dependants, the details of the main applicant must go in section 1. Details of the dependants should go in section 3. If an immigration adviser is assisting you with your application, the adviser's address should be given at 1.18.

Section 2 must be completed in full in all cases. The date needed in answer to the question at 2.1 is the date that the main applicant's limited leave expires. If, after your application is made, your circumstances change or you have new information which you would like to be considered, please submit this as soon as possible (see note 9).

This form has been archived as the application type no longer exists.

Section 3 must be completed in full in all cases where you have family living with you in the UK.

Dependants for the purpose of this application include:

- your partner and children under 18 who were given permission to stay in the UK as your dependants when you were given leave outside of the immigration Rules under the Grenfell Tower immigration policy
- any child born to you in the UK who is not a British citizen

You can only include your children if they are under 18 years of age at the date of application. Any children that were given permission to stay in the UK as your dependants when you were given leave outside of the Immigration Rules under the Grenfell Tower immigration policy, and are now over 18 years of age, must apply on a separate FLR(GT) application form. If your child will turn 18 years old while your application is being considered, you should include them on your application form.

You cannot include the following as dependants:

- a spouse, civil partner, same sex partner or any other dependant who already has leave in the UK in another category
- a spouse, civil partner, same sex partner or other dependant who is currently in the UK with no valid leave
- a dependant over 18 years of age who is not your spouse or partner

Section 4 must be completed as indicated in all cases.

Section 5 must be completed in all cases.

Section 6 must be completed in all cases. If any dependants are included in the application, please make sure that you provide their documents and tick the relevant boxes.

Section 7 must be completed in all cases. Where more than one applicant is included on the form, the signature must be that of the main applicant.

Personal Checklist. This is a final reminder to help you make sure that you have done everything correctly, including the address where you should send the application.

After completing the form, please make sure that you submit all pages up to and including section 7.

Please keep the Personal Checklist at the end of the form.

This form has been archived as the application type no longer exists.

4. Applying by post

Your completed application must be sent to the following address:

Home Office
RCM (Grenfell Tower Team)
7th Floor
Capital Building
LIVERPOOL
L3 9PP

It is very important that you address the envelope exactly as above when using the FLR(GT) Form. We recommend that you use Recorded Signed For or Special Delivery, as this helps us to record the receipt of your application. Please make sure that you keep a record of the Recorded Signed For or Special Delivery number.

5. Obtaining another form

You can download application forms from the Home Office website: www.gov.uk/visas-immigration.

6. Choosing an immigration adviser

Immigration advisers are regulated by the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner (OISC).

Please see www.gov.uk/government/organisations/office-of-the-immigration-services-commissioner for more information and a list of authorised advisers. It also has links to websites for solicitors, barristers and legal executives.

If you have a complaint about an immigration adviser or need other information, the OISC contact details are:

Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner
5th Floor
21 Bloomsbury Street London
WC1B 3HF
Telephone: 0345 000 0046

7. How long will it take to process your application

Your application for further leave under the dedicated Grenfell Tower immigration policy will be dealt with as quickly as possible by our dedicated team. If you fail to submit all the necessary documents with your application, there may be a delay in dealing with your application while we wait for you to submit these documents.

If you submit your application out of time we may need to make further enquiries, and there may be a delay in considering your application while these are made.

This form has been archived as the application type no longer exists.

8. How will your passport (s) and other documents be returned?

Your passport(s) and any other documents we return to you will be returned by Recorded Signed For Delivery in all cases.

9. Contacting us after you have applied

If you have to send us a document which you cannot provide when making your application, or if you need to tell us anything else, including a change of address or circumstances, before you hear from us, please use the following address:

Home Office

RCM (Grenfell Tower Team)

7th Floor
