For the claimant: Claimant in person
For the respondent: n/a

JUDGMENT

The Respondent's application for reconsideration made by the Respondent's solicitor's letter of 7 July 2020 is dismissed.

WRITTEN REASONS

1. I am satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the Respondent is aware of today's hearing taking place, given the number of communications that have been sent by email and also by post to the Respondent and emails sent by both the Claimant and the Employment Tribunal administration to the solicitor CS Solicitors who made the application for reconsideration.
2. I note that despite the Respondent having instructed solicitors, no application under rule 20 of the Employment Tribunal (Constitution & Rules of Procedure) Regulations 2013, Schedule 1 ("the Rules") has been made to extend time for presenting a response, nor has any response been presented to the Tribunal.
3. There is no defence to the Claimant's claim for unpaid wages which remains unpaid.
4. I therefore confirm the judgment for £4,467.44 made under rule 21 on 1 May 2020.

5. It follows that the Claimant may take steps to enforce.
