

Majority of cases involved young males

Half of cases involved 16-17 year olds

Young people came into formal contact with the criminal justice system in 2,267 cases

49.4% were deemed suitable for resolution through the Youth Engagement Process

Youth Engagement Clinics

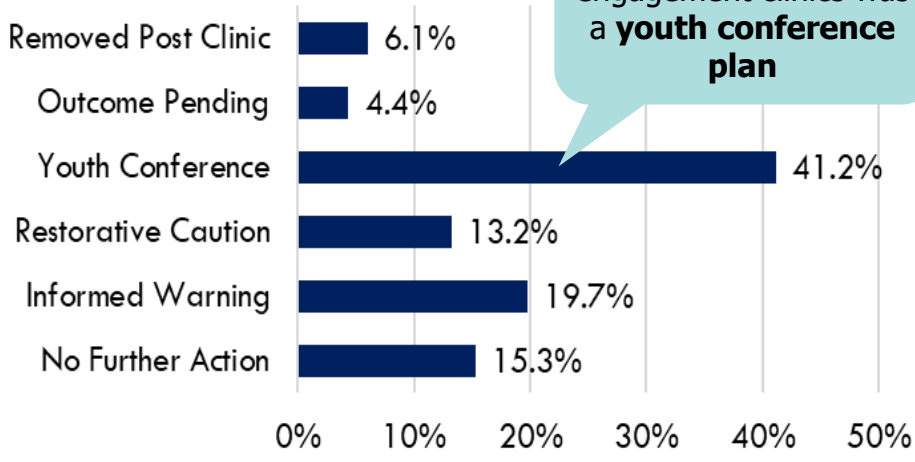

In most cases, as part of the Youth Engagement Process, the young person will be asked to attend a youth engagement clinic.

The aim of the clinic is to make sure that young people have all the information they need to help them decide what to do.

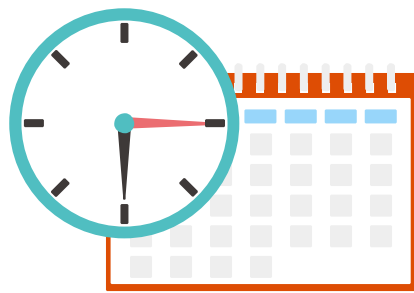

98.3% of young people who participated in clinics stated it "helped them understand the choices available to them"

Outcomes of Youth Engagement Clinics

The most common outcome from youth engagement clinics was a youth conference plan

The median time taken for cases to complete via the Youth Engagement Process was 78 days

Legal advice or representation was declined in 83.3% of cases, though it was offered to all young people

