Dear [REDACTED]

PROVISION OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

Thank you for your request for information about four-toed hedgehog imports, which APHA received on 26 August 2021 . Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000.

The information you requested and our response is detailed below:

“Do you have any reports on the number of four-toed hedgehogs (Atelerix albiventris) imported to the UK from their native range (Africa)? And is it known whether they were bred in captivity or wild caught?”

Clarity was received on 28 August 2001:

“The timeframe I would like to inquire about is the past 10 years, and if possible, divided into separate years, so that I get an overview of imported Atelerix albiventris per year during the past 10 years, if possible. And whether it is known if they are bred in captivity or wild caught.”

APHA have searched the Trade Control and Expert System (TRACES) under Atelerix albiventris and there are no records of four-toed hedgehogs (Atelerix albiventris) imported into the UK from their native range of Africa or from any other country in the past four years. APHA are unable to provide data for the past ten years as TRACES does not hold data prior to 2016.

Animal and Plant Health Agency (APHA) has access to UK statistical data from the EU Commission’s Trade Control and Expert System (TRACES) system, for commercial imports and exports. The information extracted from here is a true reflection of the information that we have access to. APHA cannot guarantee the accuracy of this data, as we can only rely on the information that has been input into TRACES by a third party.

Information disclosed in response to this FOI request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOI and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on GOV.UK, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the GOV.UK website.

An Annex is attached which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you and contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact the Access to Information Team at the email address below or postal address at the top of this letter.

Postal requests during the COVID-19 outbreak

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request, you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 11 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to the Access to Information Manager at the address at the top of this letter or email enquiries@apha.gov.uk and the team will arrange for an internal review of your case.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) for a decision. Please note that generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted APHA's own complaints procedure. The ICO can be contacted at:
