The Respondent must retain that part of the award which relates to the Claimants' loss of earnings up to the date of the hearing - it is called the Prescribed Element and is £13,239.96 for Mr Clarke and £13,120.96 for the Miss Bellucci, until the Respondent receives from the Department for Work and Pensions a Notice. The Notice will either require the Respondent to pay all, or part, of the Prescribed Element to the Department, or tell the Respondent that it does not require any payment.

When the Respondent receives the Notice he must pay to the Department for Work and Pensions the sum specified in the Notice and the balance between the Prescribed Element and the sum paid to the DWP should be paid to the Claimants.

The rest of the awards detailed in the Judgment, over and above the Prescribed Element, and as detailed below, are due to the Claimants straight away:
