

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr C Bereanu

Respondents: Opentrade Global Ltd

JUDGMENT

The remaining complaints of race discrimination, notice pay, wages and holiday pay are struck out.

REASONS

1. At a preliminary (case management) hearing on 21 May 2021 the claimant was given a strike out warning on the basis that his refusal to engage and cooperate with the tribunal in the case management of the claim was capable of amounting to unreasonable conduct for the purposes of rules 37(1)(b) and (c). The claimant was also ordered to provide further particulars of claim by 18 June 2021 and warned that if he failed to comply with this order then consideration would be given to striking out the claim (comprising of the complaints enumerated above) under rules 37 (b), (c) and (d). These warnings were reiterated and further explained in a Case Management Summary and Order dated 21 May 2021.
2. The claimant has failed to comply with this order. He has provided no explanation for this nor made any representations as to why the claim should not be struck out nor requested a hearing to make such representations.
3. The claim is therefore struck out under rules 37(b), (c) and (d).
