1 Introduction

1.1 Purpose of this report

- 1.1.1 This report is an appendix to the historic environment assessment. It presents a summary gazetteer of heritage assets and sets out impact assessment tables relating to the Proposed Scheme off-route works within the Carlisle Station area.
- 1.1.2 This appendix should be read in conjunction with:
- Volume 3, Route-wide effects;
 - Volume 4, Off-route effects; and
 - Volume 5, Appendices.
- 1.1.3 Historic environment baseline data are set out in Background Information and Data (BID)¹: Historic environment baseline, which includes the historic environment detailed gazetteer in Appendix A².
- 1.1.4 The gazetteers set out Unique gazetteer identifier (UID) codes for the heritage assets considered in the impact assessment; the UID are used for reference across all the historic environment reports and maps.
- 1.1.5 This report should be read in conjunction with Map Series HE-01, in the Volume 5 Historic environment Map Book.

1.2 Description of summary gazetteer

- 1.2.1 Table 1 below sets out the information provided in the summary gazetteer (Table 4 in Section 3). The summary gazetteer provides a synopsis of all known heritage assets within the study area for the Carlisle Station area. A detailed gazetteer and further background are provided in BID HE-001-OR002².

Table 1: Information provided for each heritage asset in the summary gazetteer

Gazetteer heading	Information provided
UID	UID – every asset has been allocated a project specific reference, that identifies it by area and links to the baseline report, detailed gazetteer and map books
Map reference	Map Book reference – reference to the map book sheet on which the asset can be found
NGR	National Grid Reference (NGR) – 8 figure grid reference locating asset, no spaces
Other reference	The National Heritage List for England (NHLE) or Historic environment (HER) reference number, where applicable
Monument type	Classification of monument type using the definitions provided by the Forum on Information Standards in Heritage (FISH) Thesaurus of Monument Types
Name	Asset name used on designation records or another clearly identifiable name
Description	Summary asset description, including the contribution made by setting to value
Period	Primary period from which the asset originates (period classifications are defined by FISH and presented in the Glossary and Definitions)
Designation and grade	Type and grade of historic environment designation where relevant
Heritage value	Value as set out in the Scope and Methodology Report (SMR)

1.3 Description of impact assessment table

- 1.3.1 Table 2 sets out the information provided on the impacts on all identified heritage assets and the likely resulting environmental effects, taking into account agreed mitigation measures as set out in the Impact Assessment Table (IAT) in Section 4.
- 1.3.2 Details on the assignment of values and the assessment of the scale of impacts are set out in the Environmental Impact Assessment Scope and Methodology Report (SMR) (Volume 5, Appendix CT-001-00001).

OR002_0003	HE-01-803	339812 555905	NHLE: 1007149 HER n/a NMR n/a	Defence Town wall	Town wall, section on West Walls	The remains of the Carlisle city walls, which date to the 11th century and were repaired and rebuilt in later centuries. The monument is located west of the Cathedral Precinct and is separated by West Walls. The setting of the asset is in this quiet area, separated from other historical assets. The railway track is visible in some places from the asset, but Citadel Station is not. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and architectural interest as a well-preserved example of a medieval town wall. The setting of the asset provides a positive contribution to its heritage value.	Medieval	Scheduled monument	High
OR002_0005	HE-01-804	340007 555786	NHLE: 1007275 HER: 43810 NMR n/a	Civil Town	Roman and medieval town area bounded by Heads Lane, West Wall and Blackfriars Street	An area of the former Roman and medieval towns, bounded by Heads Lane, West Walls and Blackfriars. The former Roman town was named Luguvalium and was the capital of the 'Civitas Carvetiorum'. The boundary was likely a stockade and ditch and later walls. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and archaeological interest as the remains of the former settlement and the potential of Neolithic, Roman, early and later medieval archaeological remains in the area. Setting does not contribute to the heritage value of the asset.	Neolithic, Roman, Early medieval, and Medieval.	Scheduled monument	High
OR002_0006	HE-01-804	339891 555934	NHLE: 1007074 HER n/a NMR n/a	Religious, ritual and funerary Precinct	Carlisle Cathedral Precinct	The scheduled area of the Carlisle Cathedral Precinct only includes the below ground remains in the area. The precinct was in use from the 12th century but was part of the Roman town and occupied until the 4th century. The Augustinian Priory was founded in 1122 and became a cathedral in 1133. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and architectural interest as an intact cathedral precinct, which has not been altered by modern development, and containing some of the earliest surviving buildings in Carlisle. The setting does not contribute to the heritage value of the asset.	Roman, Early medieval, Medieval, and Post- medieval.	Scheduled monument	High
OR002_0007	HE-01-804	339773 556043	NHLE: 1007075 HER n/a NMR n/a	Civil Town	Area of Roman and medieval towns, bounded by Annetwell Street, Abbey Street, Castle Street and Paternoster Row	An area of Roman and medieval Carlisle, located within the Carlisle City Centre Conservation Area. The scheduled area includes only the below ground remains of the former town. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and archaeological interest and its potential for Roman and medieval archaeological remains in the area. Interest is also derived from the presence of the below ground archaeological remains of the Roman fort, dating to the first century AD. Any Roman and medieval remains are no longer visible and therefore the setting does not contribute to the heritage value.	Roman, Early medieval, and Medieval.	Scheduled monument	High
OR002_0009	HE-01-804	339868 556053	NHLE: 1025283 HER n/a NMR n/a	Domestic House	19, Castle Street	A former house now an office, originally built as a pair with Number 17. The building is dated and inscribed 'J&MF 1798' on the rainwater head and has extensive early and late 19th century alteration. The setting is formed by modern and historic buildings, located on the original street pattern. The value of the asset is derived from its historic interest through its association with well-known Carlisle bankers, Joseph Forster and Mary Robinson. The setting makes a positive contribution to the asset's heritage value, due to its location amongst other similar historic buildings.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II	Moderate

The speared and scrolled double gates are in a supported scrolled frame under a scrolled overthrow. The setting of the asset is the entrance to the churchyard of St Cuthbert with St Mary (OR002_0213), with key views from St Cuthbert's Lane. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and architectural interest as a good example of a 19th century gate leading to a church. The setting of the asset provides a positive contribution to its heritage value, due to the historic association and location with the church.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II	Moderate

The buildings have two storeys. Each pair of houses is separated from the next by a round arched through passageway to a court behind. The area surrounding St Nicholas Street is busy and comprises mainly residential properties and commercial development including a large retail park to the south. The setting makes a positive contribution to the heritage value of the asset. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and architectural interest as a post-medieval terrace, and through its group value with other historic buildings. The setting of the asset is the corner of Lowther and Warwick Street. The original streetscape of the asset has remained relatively intact, which makes a positive contribution to the heritage value of the asset. This area comprises a mixture of architectural styles which are broadly contemporary and reflects the expansion of Carlisle during this period. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and architectural interest as a good example of a 19th century former residential house.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II	Moderate

OR002_0040	HE-01-803	340263 555779	NHLE: 1196930 HER n/a NMR n/a	Commercial Bank (financial)	Trustee Savings Bank and attached railings	Formerly known as the Carlisle Savings Bank, the building was constructed in 1840 by Arthur and George Williams of Liverpool. After the building was altered in 1874 it opened as part of the adjoining Post Office. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and architectural interest as a good example of a surviving 19th century bank. The surrounding streetscape forms the setting of the asset, which has remained relatively intact, with the development of the road being the only major change to the area. This makes a positive contribution to the heritage value of the asset.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II*	High
OR002_0044	HE-01-804	339809 555980	NHLE: 1196934 HER n/a NMR n/a	Domestic House	Abbey Court	Two early 19th century houses, now one shop. They are two storeys high and built from brown and red brick. The setting of the asset is on Paternoster Row, to the west of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity (OR002_0147), in an area of residential houses and small commercial buildings. The quiet residential setting of the asset has not altered significantly, which makes a positive contribution to the heritage value of the asset.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II	Moderate
OR002_0045	HE-01-804	339852 556014	NHLE: 1196935 HER n/a NMR n/a	Domestic House	7, Paternoster Row	A former house, now a shop with storage accommodation above. The building dates to the late 18th century and has later alterations. It is three storeys high and built from brown brick. The setting of the asset is on Paternoster row, with views to the east of Carlisle Cathedral. The area comprises residential and commercial buildings. The quiet residential setting of the asset has not altered significantly, which makes a positive contribution to the heritage value of the asset.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II	Moderate
OR002_0048	HE-01-804	340128 555853	NHLE: 1196938 HER n/a NMR n/a	Commercial Bank (financial)	Midland Bank, including Railings	A bank with a manager's house, originally constructed in 1849 and amended in 1898 by T. Taylor-Scott. The setting is formed by the buildings cast-iron railings and large commercial buildings, banks and shops. The asset is a dominant feature of the area due to its prominent corner position and the streetscape remains relatively unchanged despite some modern developments. This makes a positive contribution to the heritage value of the asset. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and architectural interest due to its distinctive use of white Portland stone and association with Taylor-Scott.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II	Moderate
OR002_0049	HE-01-803	340211 555619	NHLE: 1196939 HER n/a NMR n/a	Civil Crown court	Crown Court, adjoining offices and gate arch	The Crown Court and Court Offices, dating to 1810 – 1817 by Sir Robert Smirke. The 19th century rounded tower was constructed and design to resemble the original Citadel of 1542. Its value is due to its Gothic architectural style. The buildings are almost a mirror image of the Nisi Prius Court opposite, and still referred to as The Citadel. They remain the prominent features in the area and their setting is formed by commercial and retail buildings, and the Citadel Station. Despite later 19th and 20th century developments to the area this makes a positive contribution to its the heritage value.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade I	High

Its value is due to its Gothic architectural style and distinctive red sandstone. The building mirrors the Crown Court opposite, with which it has group value, and is collectively referred to as The Citadel. The setting of these buildings is formed by a mix of commercial and retail buildings and by the Citadel Station. Despite later 19th and 20th century developments to the area this positively contributing to its the heritage value.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade I	High

OR002_0052	HE-01-804	340109 555833	NHLE: 1196942 HER n/a NMR n/a	Commemorative monument	Statue of James Steel	A statue of James Steel, built in 1859 by renowned sculptor W. F. Woodington. Steel was an editor of the Carlisle Journal. The inscription reads 'JAMES STEEL MAYOR 1845 AND 1846'. The value of the asset is derived from its historic and architectural interest, as a memorial to James Steel and through its association with Woodington. The setting is formed by the large commercial buildings on English Street. The statue is a focal point of the area, easily noticeable due to its central location by the road. This prominent location makes a positive contribution to the heritage value of the asset.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II	Moderate
OR002_0064	HE-01-804	340031 555970	NHLE: 1196954 HER n/a NMR n/a	Domestic House	3 and 4, Greenmarket	Two former 18th century houses, now converted to two shops. The setting of the asset is formed by the other former houses of a similar date and style located next to the asset, on the same row. The value of the asset is derived from its architecture and of the historic interest of its converted shop front, which illustrates the development of Carlisle's townscape. The setting is also formed by Green Market Square and the asset has clear views of the square to the south-west. This makes a positive contribution to the asset's heritage value, due to its location amongst other similar historic buildings.	Post-medieval	Listed building Grade II	Moderate

Extended in 1879 – 1880 by an island and southern platform, island buildings, footbridge, glazed roof and undercroft. It derives its heritage value from its architectural design by Sir William Tite and historic interest as an early major railway station. It has group value with the Grade II listed Detached West Wall that formerly had a connected roof over the later southern platforms. The setting of the asset, in a prominent position at the southern end of the Carlisle City Centre Conservation Area, makes a positive contribution to its heritage value. It was laid out as a residential suburb in the 19th century after the demolition of the east walls of the city in 1813. The area is made up on defined perimeter blocks with terraced housing. Its character has architectural conformity, with the houses being of high quality and built from brick, stone and slate. The setting is mostly residential in nature, although there are open green areas, this makes a positive contribution to the heritage value of the area. Citadel Station is not visible from the area and does not contribute to the value.	Post-medieval	Conservation area	Moderate construction work into the busy station. This will partially close Platform 1, 2 and 3, and areas of the undercroft of the station, during construction work. There will be a change to the legibility of the station's historic layout and function during construction works, however this will be minimal. This will adversely impact the heritage value of the asset.	(platform 0), the provision of a new passenger lift and stairs access via a subway created in the existing undercroft. The works include platform 2 infill at the southern end of the station, to accommodate the extension of platforms 1 and 3 to the south-west. However, the physical impacts are not to the architectural elements that contribute most to the station's heritage value. The Proposed Scheme will alter the traditional layout of platforms 1 and 2 and introduce a new footbridge (between platform 1 and the new platform 0) in proximity to the island buildings and the wall. This will reduce the legibility of the historic layout of the station and ability to appreciate the heritage value of the station. In particular the relationship between the station and the Grade II listed Detached West Wall of Citadel Station will be altered. Overall, this will result in an adverse impact to the heritage value of Citadel Station.		Operation: Neutral

OR002_0173	HE-01-803	Detached West Wall of Citadel Station	Listed building Grade II	High	Minimal adverse The asset is located within the land required for the construction of the Proposed Scheme. The Proposed Scheme will introduce the presence of construction work into the setting of the wall and the busy Citadel Station for the duration of the work. This will partially close Platform 2 during the construction work. The new platform 0 will be offset from the Grade II listed wall by 2.5m. The presence of construction work will diminish the appreciation of the wall's relationship and group value with the Grade II listed Citadel Station for the duration of the work. This will adversely impact the heritage value of the asset.	Low adverse There will be no physical impact to the wall. The introduction of the new footbridge and lift access and changes to the platform layout will alter the legibility of the historic layout of the station. It will reduce the ability to appreciate the relationship between the detached wall and the Grade II* listed Citadel Station. The change to the setting of the wall will adversely impact its heritage value.	No change The operation of the Proposed Scheme will introduce an increased number of trains running through the station. This will not impact the heritage value of the asset as it will still be understood as part of a working rail station. OR002_0444	HE-01-803	Victoria Viaduct, Carlisle	Non-designated	Low	No change No change is predicted because alteration of the asset's setting would not alter its value. The asset will be used as a construction traffic route. However, this is already a busy road and any increase in noise and traffic from construction traffic will not alter the setting. This will not impact the heritage value of the asset.	No change No change is predicted because alteration of the asset's setting would not alter its value.
