

Note on further new Finance (No. 2) Bill resolutions at Report

Finance (No. 2) Bill: Ways and Means (Public Interest Business Protection Tax)

Authorises the Finance Bill to provide for a new tax to be charged in circumstances where a business for which there is a special administration regime becomes subject to special administration or to other special measures in connection with insolvency.