JUDGMENT

The response is struck out under rule 37 of the Rules contained in Schedule 1 of the Employment Tribunals (Constitution and Rules of Procedure) Regulations 2013 on the grounds that the response has not been actively pursued in terms of rule 37(1)(d).

REASONS

1. On 23 November 2020, the respondent was asked for their comments on further information provided by the claimant and to confirm their view on the suitability of a CVP hearing. On 31 December 2020, the Tribunal asked for the respondents comments again, providing 14 days for a reply and seeking a reason for the delay.

No reply was received from the respondent and on 27 January 2021, the Tribunal directed that the respondent must comply with the previous directions. The respondent was given until 4 February 2021 to respond and was informed that a strike out warning could be issued if they did not comply.

No reply was received from the respondent.

2. On 12 May 2021 the Tribunal gave the respondent an opportunity to give written reasons by 27 May 2021 or to request a hearing in order to consider why the response should not be struck out.
3. The respondent has failed to give an acceptable reason why such a judgment should not be made or to request a hearing. The Tribunal therefore strikes out the response.
