Dear [Redacted]

PROVISION OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

Thank you for your request for information about the import of dog supplements, which APHA received on 22 November 2021. Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000.

The information you requested and the response is detailed below:

“Have any licences been granted for import, from the USA for the following:

- Bullymax tablets / supplements
- MVPK9 / XDOG supplements
- Nutritional supplements for dogs containing animal by products.

In the last 5 years or in the last 10 years”

Please see data below on the number of licences issued from 2016 to date containing animal by products. APHA do not hold data prior to 2016, due to our retention schedule, so are unable to supply data for previous years.

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request, you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 11 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to the Access to Information Manager at the address at the top of this letter or email enquiries@apha.gov.uk and the team will arrange for an internal review of your case.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) for a decision. Please note that generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted APHA's own complaints procedure. The ICO can be contacted at:
