Product Description	A fog machine presented in a black metal case supplied with a separate power cord.
Country of Origin	China
Counterfeit	Unknown
Risk Level	Serious
Risk Type	Electric shock
Risk Description	The product poses a serious risk of electric shock as when tested the earth connection was not adequately secured from live parts only by basic insulation. The separate cord set (flexible lead) had not been correctly fitted with a standard plug. The plug that was fitted did not comply with the dimensional requirements of BS1363 and the fuse did not comply with BS 1362. The fuse was shorter than the minimum length stated in the standard and contained no granular filler, which is required to ensure safe operation in fault conditions. The product was not accompanied by adequate instructions and does not comply fully with the marking requirements of the relevant standard. The product does not comply with the Electrical Equipment (Safety) Regulations 2016.
