

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Ms Grubic-Andvari

Respondent: Refugee Therapy Centre

Heard at: Watford Employment Tribunal

Before: Judge Bartlett, Mr Bhatti and Mr Sutton

JUDGMENT

1. The Claimant's application dated 28 October 2021 for reconsideration of the Employment Tribunal's judgement making a costs award in the respondent's favour is refused.

REASONS

2. In a sequence of emails on 28 October 2021 the claimant made an application for reconsideration of the Employment Tribunal's judgement awarding costs in the respondent's favour which was sent to the claimant on 15 October 2021.
3. These emails contained a substantial number of documents.
4. The Tribunal has given due consideration to rule 72 of the Employment Tribunal Rules of Procedure. The Tribunal has reviewed the application and considers that this is an attempt to re-argue the case which was heard between 9 and 13 November 2020. No issues were raised in the application that could give rise to a reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked. I have therefore decided that there is no reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked. For these reasons the application is refused.
