JUDGMENT

On 14 March 2022 the claimant withdrew his claim for harassment related to disability.

On 15 March 2022 the parties told the Tribunal that they had agreed terms of settlement of all of the remaining claims in the case, and on the same day the case was conciliated to settlement by ACAS.

The claimant agreed that on conciliation they would withdraw their claims and agree to their dismissal.

Therefore, for the above reasons and with the parties' consent, the Tribunal unanimously orders that

1. The claim for harassment related to disability is dismissed because the claimant has withdrawn it.
2. The case is adjourned until 28 days after the Tribunal sends this order to the parties; and
3. If neither party applies for the case to be relisted within those 28 days, then all the remaining claims in this case will be dismissed without further order on the basis that the claimant has withdrawn them.
4. Any future hearing in this case is cancelled.
