Dear ██████████

RE: Request for Information – RFI3779

Thank you for your request for information which was processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You requested the following information:

I would be pleased if you could provide me with any documentation that justifies your proposal to build on Ifield golf course.

Response

We can inform you that we do hold the information that you have requested. However, we rely on section 22, exemption where information is intended for future publication under the FOIA.

The full text of the legislation can be found on the following link and we have quoted section 22 below for ease.

<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2000/36/section/22>

Section 22 - Information intended for future publication.

(1) Information is exempt information if:

- (a) the information is held by the public authority with a view to its publication, by the authority or any other person, at some future date (whether determined or not),
- (b) the information was already held with a view to such publication at the time when the request for information was made, and
- (c) it is reasonable in all the circumstances that the information should be withheld from disclosure until the date referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) The duty to confirm or deny does not arise if, or to the extent that, compliance with section 1(1)(a) would involve the disclosure of any information (whether or not already recorded) which falls within subsection (1).

Section 22 is a qualified exemption. This means that in order to withhold information under this exemption, we must consider the public interest in disclosure.

Public Interest Test – Factors in favour of disclosure

Homes England is compliant with the government agenda of transparency and recognises the benefit of publishing the information, particularly when it concerns how Homes England undertakes its work.

Public Interest Test – Factors in favour of non-disclosure

The information held by Homes England that falls in scope of this request (NPPF Assessment) will be published when Homes England submit our Local Plan Regulation 19 representations and Outline Planning Application (OPA). It would not be in the public interest to disclose this information in advance of this as there is a recognised procedure for the public to comment on planning proposals and to disclose the information outside of this procedure would interfere with the legislative planning requirements.

Disclosure would also be likely to create a burden on Homes England in responding to further requests and enquiries in relation to this planning in advance of the submissions and responses that would be addressed as part of the proper process.

Therefore, after careful consideration we have concluded that at this time, the balance of the public interest favours the non-disclosure.

Advice and Assistance

In compliance with the Section 45 Code of Practice (Paragraph 14) and to offer advice and assistance under section 16 of the FOIA we can advise that the OPA and supporting documents will be published on Horsham District Council's website and will be able to be accessed via the planning application online register / search. We envisage both the Regulation 19 representations and OPA submissions in Autumn 2022.

Right to Appeal

If you are not happy with the information that has been provided or the way in which your request has been handled, you may request an internal review. You can request an internal review by writing to Homes England via the details below, quoting the reference number at the top of this letter.

Upon receipt, your request for review will be passed to an independent party not involved in your original request. We aim to issue a response within 20 working days.

You may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) however, the Information Commissioner does usually expect the internal review procedure to be exhausted in the first instance.
