

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr K Dooley

Respondent: FedEx Express UK Transportation Limited

RECONSIDERATION OF JUDGMENT FOR COSTS UNDER RULE 70

The claimant's application for reconsideration of the Tribunal's Judgment on Costs sent to the parties on 11 March 2022 is refused under Rule 70 as it is not necessary in the interests of justice to do so. The Judgment is confirmed save for a correction under Rule 69 regarding the reference to £2,000 in paragraph 9, which was a typographical error and is corrected to read £2,200 and the references to 'She' should be replaced with 'He' which was also typographical.

Reasons

1. The Tribunal has considered the claimant's application dated 22 March 2022 and the attached correspondence with the Tribunal dated 16 December 2021 and the respondent's email of 1 April 2021.
2. The claimant has not supplied any evidence of his numerous emails to the Tribunal or details about the numerous calls in 2021.
3. In addition, the claimant has not provided evidence of his time off work and the reasons for it or which period this covers. The Tribunal notes the length of this period is disputed by the respondent.
4. The claimant has not provided any supporting medical evidence.
5. The Tribunal acknowledges the claimant's difficult personal circumstances but, without more, this does not adequately explain a complete non-engagement with the Tribunal claim.
6. The claimant has still not addressed or provided evidence of his means.

7. The Tribunal apologises for referring, in error, to the claimant in the feminine pronoun.

Public access to Employment Tribunal decisions

All judgments and reasons for the judgments are published, in full, online at www.gov.uk/employment-tribunal-decisions shortly after a copy has been sent to the claimant(s) and respondent(s) in a case.

Employment Judge Khalil

26 April 2022