Claimant: Mr J Robinson

Respondent: Lunar Automotive Limited

Heard at: Manchester Employment Tribunal

On: 20th April 2022

Before: Employment Judge Cronshaw (sitting alone)

Representation

Claimant: Mr Ali (Counsel)

Respondent: Did not attend

JUDGMENT

The Judgment of the Tribunal is that:

1. The claim for constructive unfair dismissal is well founded. The Respondent is ordered to pay to the Claimant the following sums:
 - a. Basic award: £14,016.60
 - b. Compensatory award: £8436.00Recoupment regulations do not apply as no benefits were claimed by the Claimant.
2. The Respondent is in breach of contract for failure to pay the Claimant in full for Bank Holiday leave. The Respondent is ordered to pay the Claimant the net sum of £93.44 being damages for the breach of contract.
3. The Respondent is in breach of contract for failure to pay the Claimant 12 weeks statutory notice pay. The Respondent is therefore ordered to pay the Claimant the net sum of £3662.99.
4. The complaint in relation to the deduction of employee's pension contributions not paid to the pension scheme is stayed until 19th October 2022 to allow the claimant to explore an alternative way of pursuing this complaint through the Pensions Ombudsman and Pensions Regulator. The claimants' representative must, by 19th October 2022, update the Tribunal in writing, if the complaint has not been previously withdrawn. If a further stay is requested reasons must be provided.

NOTICE

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS (INTEREST) ORDER 1990

Tribunal case number: 2420317/2020

Name of case: Mr J Robinson v Lunar Automotive Limited

The Employment Tribunals (Interest) Order 1990 provides that sums of money payable as a result of a judgment of an Employment Tribunal (excluding sums representing costs or expenses), shall carry interest where the full amount is not paid within 14 days after the day that the document containing the tribunal's written judgment is recorded as having been sent to parties. That day is known as "the relevant decision day". The date from which interest starts to accrue is called "the calculation day" and is the day immediately following the relevant decision day.

The rate of interest payable is that specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 on the relevant decision day. This is known as "the stipulated rate of interest" and the rate applicable in your case is set out below.

The following information in respect of this case is provided by the Secretary of the Tribunals in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 of the Order:-

"the relevant judgment day" is: 6 May 2022

"the calculation day" is: 7 May 2022

"the stipulated rate of interest" is: 8%

INTEREST ON TRIBUNAL AWARDS

GUIDANCE NOTE

1. This guidance note should be read in conjunction with the booklet, 'The Judgment' which can be found on our website at www.gov.uk/government/publications/employment-tribunal-hearings-judgment-guide-t426

If you do not have access to the internet, paper copies can be obtained by telephoning the tribunal office dealing with the claim.

2. The Employment Tribunals (Interest) Order 1990 provides for interest to be paid on employment tribunal awards (excluding sums representing costs or expenses) if they remain wholly or partly unpaid more than 14 days after the date on which the Tribunal's judgment is recorded as having been sent to the parties, which is known as "the relevant decision day".
3. The date from which interest starts to accrue is the day immediately following the relevant decision day and is called "the calculation day". The dates of both the relevant decision day and the calculation day that apply in your case are recorded on the Notice attached to the judgment. If you have received a judgment and subsequently request reasons (see 'The Judgment' booklet) the date of the relevant judgment day will remain unchanged.
4. "Interest" means simple interest accruing from day to day on such part of the sum of money awarded by the tribunal for the time being remaining unpaid. Interest does not accrue on deductions such as Tax and/or National Insurance Contributions that are to be paid to the appropriate authorities. Neither does interest accrue on any sums which the Secretary of State has claimed in a recoupment notice (see 'The Judgment' booklet).
5. Where the sum awarded is varied upon a review of the judgment by the Employment Tribunal or upon appeal to the Employment Appeal Tribunal or a higher appellate court, then interest will accrue in the same way (from "the calculation day"), but on the award as varied by the higher court and not on the sum originally awarded by the Tribunal.
6. 'The Judgment' booklet explains how employment tribunal awards are enforced. The interest element of an award is enforced in the same way.
