How to introduce the test

- You should use these instructions to introduce the English reading test. The wording of these instructions can be adapted, provided the meaning is retained.

This is the English reading test: Paper 1.

The test will take around 60 minutes. This includes your additional time allowance.

We are going to spend some time going through the practice page for the first text in the booklet together. When we have done that, you'll need to answer the questions quietly on your own.

Try to answer as many questions as you can. If you can't answer a question, you should move on to the next one and come back to it later on if you have time. If you want to change an answer, you should rub it out or put a line through the answer you don't want to be marked.

When you have answered the questions for the first text, you should check your work carefully and then put your pen or pencil down. Then we'll go through the practice page for the second text.

There will be different types of question to answer, including:

- writing an answer on a line
- putting a tick in a box next to the answer you think is correct
- putting ticks in a table to show if an answer is true or false.

If you have any questions during the test, put your hand up and wait for someone to come over to you. Remember, we can't help you answer any of the test questions or read any of the words to you after the practice page.

Do you have any questions?

Write your name on the front of the answer booklet.

- Tell the pupils to turn to page 5 and look at question a. Read it aloud.

(a) Who gave the toy to Lenny?

a boy

his dad

his gran

his mum

You need to tick the box that you think is correct.

- Tell the pupils to look at question b. Read it aloud.

(b) What toy did Lenny get?

- Give the pupils some time to think. You should then discuss their selections, noting different ways of expressing the correct answer and explaining that it is perfectly acceptable to use different words to explain the same idea. Let the pupils fill in the answer in their booklets.

You now have 30 minutes to finish reading the story and answer the questions on pages 6 to 16 on your own. You should think carefully about the answers you give on the answer lines and which boxes you tick.

- After approximately 30 minutes, ask pupils to turn to page 18 of the booklet.

How to deal with issues during the test	It is impossible to plan for every scenario.
