DATA PROTECTION

How the MOD collects and uses personal information

The Ministry of Defence (MOD) is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal data and the MOD Privacy notice explains your rights and provides information that you are entitled to under UK data protection legislation. It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy notice that may be provided when we collect or process personal information about you so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information. The MOD Personal information charter contains the standards you can expect when we ask for, hold or share your personal information and your rights under the law.

DECLARATION

I confirm that all information is correct to the best of my knowledge and authorise an MoD Records Check on my/my spouses behalf.

I understand that

- If I knowingly give false information, I may be liable to prosecution.
- In accordance with Data Protection legislation, the Ministry of Defence will collect, use, protect and retain the information on the form in connection with all matters relating to personnel administration and policy.

Remember – You must sign this form yourself if you can, even if someone else has filled it in for you. If a representative who acts as a Power of Attorney or Appointee for the claimant is signing this form, they must enclose evidence to show that they are the legal representative.

CONSENT FOR EMAIL CORRESPONDENCE

Veterans UK is happy to conduct correspondence with customers via a nominated email address if that is their preference. There are some types of personal information we would not be able to include in an email correspondence, which are listed below:

- I authorise Veterans UK or the MOD to use email whenever possible in its correspondence with me via my nominated email address shown on the front of this claim form. I accept that the information may include my personal details excluding bank account numbers, National Insurance number, medical details and any other information that could compromise my identity
- I understand that correspondence transmitted by email may be open to abuse because it is transmitting over an unsecured network. I accept that the MOD will not be liable for any loss, interception or unauthorised use of information transmitted this way. I am content for Veterans UK to correspond with me from the email address shown at the front of this claim form.

Do you wish to correspond via email?
