PEER REVIEWER PANEL APPOINTMENT

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

Thank you for your interest in being on the Legal Aid Agency's Peer Reviewer Panel Appointment.

General Background

Peer Review is an integral part of the Legal Aid Agency's (LAA) provider management strategy as quality assurance of the advice and legal work of providers of Legal Aid.

This Information for Candidates (IFC) document provides information about the Peer Reviewer Panel Appointment including how to submit an application.

The LAA is seeking to award Peer Reviewer Contracts to individuals in the following Categories of Law:

- Crime
- Family
- Housing
- Immigration and Asylum and
- Mental Health.

There is no limit to the number of Peer Reviewer Appointments that may be awarded through this appointment process.

Individuals that meet the LAA's Minimum Requirements to hold a Peer Reviewer Contract and who can meet the relevant category-specific requirements set out in this IFC pack will be awarded a Peer Reviewer Contract, conditional upon completing necessary training and a successful Peer Review of their own work (PRPR).

Applicants will also be able to apply to become a Senior Peer Reviewer as part of this appointment process. Senior Peer Reviewers will be initially identified during this appointment exercise, with further opportunities to be identified as a Senior Peer Reviewer during the lifetime of the Contract.

Peer Reviewer Applicants Personal Specification

As a Peer Reviewer, you will assess the quality of work carried out by legal aid providers and work with independent experts who manage the Peer Review process. There may also be opportunities to work with the LAA on quality issues requiring practitioner experience.

Could you be a Peer Reviewer?

You will need to be a legal aid practitioner either employed or Engaged with a legal aid provider. You need to provide a high-quality service to your clients, with wide casework and supervision experience, meeting the Supervisor Standards in the category of law in which you wish to be a Peer Reviewer. You should be a solicitor or have a relevant legal qualification.

Could you be a Senior Peer Reviewer?

Senior Peer Reviewers are required as part of the peer review process. They are paid the same hourly rate as Peer Reviewers. The role of the Senior Peer Reviewer is to validate Peer Review reports and representations when required.

In addition to meeting the above requirements for Peer Reviewers, to be eligible to act as a Senior Peer Reviewer you are required to have conducted 20 Peer Reviews from 1st April 2017.

Application to be classified as a Senior Peer Reviewer can be submitted during the term of the Contract at any time. As long as the applicant has completed 20 Peer Reviews, they will be eligible to apply to be a Senior Peer Reviewer and will be accepted.

The requirement for experience of 20 Peer Reviews ensures Senior Peer Reviewers have the greater experience of undertaking Peer Review necessary to validate others' work.
