

2022 International Ministerial Conference on Freedom of Religion or Belief

Tuesday 5 July: Day One

Morning Session

Opening plenary: 'FoRB: a right for everyone, everywhere'

Promoting FoRB in the face of global challenges

Afternoon Session

Prevention 'Early warning, early action'	Protection 'Sharing global knowledge, delivering local action'	Promotion 'Building FoRB for the future'
Early warning and atrocity prevention	Beyond the constitution: building blocks and incentives for effective protection	Promoting FoRB with Interreligious and Inter-convictional dialogues
Break
FoRB in times of conflict and insecurity	Leaving no-one behind: tackling discrimination	Promoting FoRB in a digital world

Wednesday 6 July: Day Two

Morning Session

Prevention 'Early warning, early action'	Protection 'Sharing global knowledge, delivering local action'	Promotion 'Building FoRB for the future'
Women and Girls: Breaking Barriers with FoRB	Inspiring Parliamentarians	FoRB and education
Break
FoRB and the media	Declaration of Humanity	Innovation Hub: FoRB in the Future

Afternoon Session

Prevention 'Early warning, early action'	Protection 'Sharing global knowledge, delivering local action'	Promotion 'Building FoRB for the future'
Civil society as a driver for change	Protecting cultural and religious heritage	Engaging the next generation
Break
Closing plenary: panel discussion: reflections and the way forward

National pledges will be taking place throughout and will be available to view after the conference