Checklist for auditor's report

(see notes 90 and 96)

The checklist below is for guidance. A report is still required either set out overleaf or by way of an attached auditor's report that covers the 1992 Act requirements.

1. In the opinion of the auditors or auditor do the accounts they have audited and which are contained in this return give a true and fair view of the matters to which they related? (See section 36(1) and (2) of the 1992 Act and notes 92 and 93)

Please explain in your report overleaf or attached.

2. Are the auditors or auditor of the opinion that the union has complied with section 28 of the 1992 Act and has:

- a. kept proper accounting records with respect to its transactions and its assets and liabilities; and
- b. established and maintained a satisfactory system of control of its accounting records, its cash holding and all its receipts and remittances. (See section 36(4) of the 1992 Act set out in note 92)

Please explain in your report overleaf or attached

3. Your auditors or auditor must include in their report the following wording:

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the matters to which they relate to.
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the sections 28, 32 and 36 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (consolidation) Act 1992.

Independent Auditors Report to the members of the Cleaners and Allied Independent Workers Union
 We have audited the financial statements of the Cleaners and Allied Independent Workers Union for the period 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2021 which comprises of the Union Income and Expenditure Accounts, Union Balance Sheets, and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable by law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the members of the Cleaners and Allied Independent Workers Union as a body and, in accordance with the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the members of the Union those matters we are required to state to them in an independent auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Union and the Union's members as a body, for our work, for this report or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of the Union's Executive and auditors

As explained more fully in the Executive's Responsibilities Statement, the Executive Council is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with applicable law and accounting standards and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

Scope of the audit of the accounts

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give a reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Union's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the Executive Council; and the overall presentation of the financial statement. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Report of the Examiner to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with the knowledge acquired by us in the course of performing the audit. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies, we consider the implications of our report.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- Give a true and fair view of the state of the Union's affairs as at 31 December 2021 and of its surplus for the period;
- Have been properly prepared in accordance with the United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- Have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.
