

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimants:

Mrs A Thompson-Burn

v

Respondent:

Warehouse Fashions Limited
(in administration)

JUDGMENT

Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013 – rule 47

The claimant's remaining claims are dismissed under rule 47.

REASONS

1. The claimant was employed by the respondent, a national British fashion retailer which went into administration on 15 April 2020. The claimant brought an employment tribunal claim making claims for a protective award (for failure to consult) and for discrimination on the grounds of pregnancy, childbirth or maternity. The claim was stayed pending consent from the administrators of the respondent.
2. In the ET3 and grounds of resistance presented on 27 September 2021, the administrators of the respondent granted consent for the claimant's claim against the respondent to proceed. The respondent did not contest the claimant's claim for a protective award; judgment for a protective award was issued dated 19 January 2022.
3. The tribunal wrote to the claimant on 25 March 2022 to say that the claimant's remaining claims would be decided at a hearing to be conducted by video on 19 July 2022. The tribunal made case management orders for the claimant to provide details of the amounts claimed, documents in support of her claim and a witness statement.
4. The claimant wrote to the tribunal on 25 March 2022 to withdraw her claim of maternity discrimination. A dismissal judgment in respect of that claim was issued on 31 March 2022. That judgment recorded that the remaining claims would proceed to hearing on 19 July 2022.
5. The claimant did not provide any further information about any other claims in accordance with the case management orders. The tribunal does not have details of any amounts claimed by the claimant. The claimant did not attend and was not represented at the hearing on 19 July 2022. She did not contact the tribunal to say why she would not be attending. It seems that the claimant is not pursuing any other claims.

6. In the circumstances, any remaining claims are dismissed under rule 47 of the Employment Tribunal Rules of Procedure 2013. This rule relates to non-attendance at a hearing.
