

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr G C Keke

Respondent: APCOA Parking UK Limited

Heard at: London South by CVP.

On: 2 September 2022

Before: Employment Judge Truscott QC (sitting alone)

Appearances

For the claimant: In person.

For the respondent: Mr E McFarlane consultant.

JUDGMENT

The claim is dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

REASONS

1. The claimant was involved in a road traffic accident on 9 August 2021. He was absent from work thereafter. He then resigned. He sought to recover the difference between his statutory sick pay for September and October 2021 and his normal wage. He also sought to recover the cost of medical treatment [83] and be awarded compensation for the pain and suffering he sustained in consequence of his accident.
2. The respondent provided a detailed explanation of the payments made to the claimant both in the evidence tendered by Ms C Smith, its HR Manager and the documents produced in the bundle [72].
3. The respondent has paid the claimant the sums it is liable to pay under the contract of employment. The sums sought by the claimant are not within the jurisdiction of the employment tribunal but may be included in a claim for personal injury in the courts if the claimant can establish negligence on the part of another.
4. In these circumstances, the claim falls to be dismissed.

Employment Judge Truscott QC
2 September 2022

