

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Ms I Kaneva
Respondent: London Borough of Haringey
Heard at: Watford Employment Tribunal (in public then private; by video)
On: 25 August 2022
Before: Employment Judge Quill (sitting alone)

Appearances

For the claimant: Mr Leonard Robert-Ogilvy, pro bono representative
For the respondent: Mr Alexander Mellis, counsel

JUDGMENT

During the course of the hearing, the following complaints were unequivocally withdrawn by the claimant's representative on behalf of the claimant.

- Any complaint that absence of a self-defence policy amounted to a contravention of the Equality Act 2010
- Any complaint that the wording of the Code of Conduct amounted to a contravention of the Equality Act 2010

Those complaints are dismissed following a withdrawal by the claimant.

This judgment does not prevent the claimant referring to the absence of a self-defence policy or to the wording of the Code of Conduct as background information, provided it is relevant to the remaining complaints.
