Dear [REDACTED]

PROVISION OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

Thank you for your request for information about dog quarantine facilities in the UK, which APHA received on 30 June 2022. Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000

The information you requested and the response is detailed below:

“1. How many dogs can be accommodated in UK quarantine facilities?”

UK quarantine facilities can accommodate 308 dogs. APHA can only provide information on quarantine facilities in England, Scotland and Wales.

“2. Has the department/government taken any steps to increase capacity within these quarantine facilities since the beginning of this calendar year?”

APHA have been working closely with rehoming charities and stakeholders to expand suitable quarantine facilities.

“a) If yes, what was the outcome of these actions?”

Additional premises have been authorised as quarantine facilities.

“3. What proportion of these facilities are currently occupied?”

267 are occupied.

The information provided for question 3 changes on a regular basis. The figure provided was correct at the time of extraction.

Information disclosed in response to this FOI request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOI and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on GOV.UK, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the GOV.UK website.

An Annex is attached which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you and contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact the Access to Information Team at the email address below or postal address at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request, you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 11 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to the Access to Information Manager at the address at the top of this letter or email enquiries@apha.gov.uk and the team will arrange for an internal review of your case.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) for a decision. Please note that generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted APHA's own complaints procedure. The ICO can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
