

Department for Levelling Up, Housing & Communities

Land Use Change Statistics:

New residential addresses: Factsheet

England: 2020-21

New addresses created on previous land use:

66%

On previously developed land

Largest previous land use group:

25%

On previously residential use

New addresses created within the Green Belt:

2%

New addresses created on land designated as Green Belt

Of which:

47%

On previously developed land

New residential addresses created within areas at a higher risk of flooding:

7%

New addresses created within National Flood Zone 3 (ignoring the presence of flood defences)

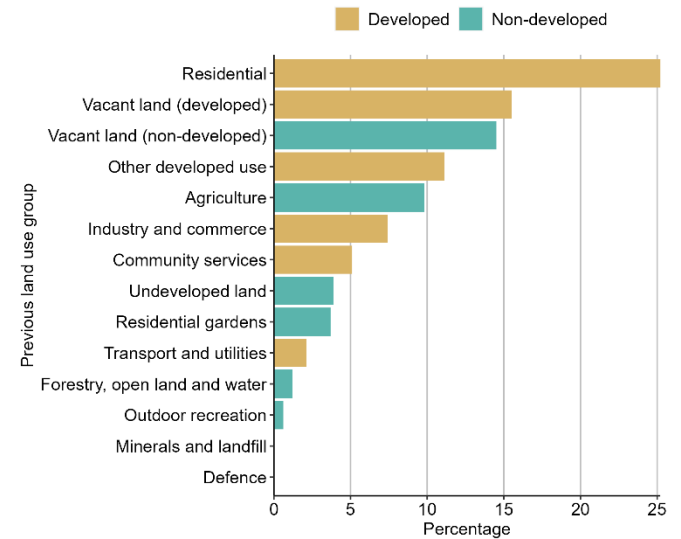

3%

New addresses created within areas at high/medium Risk of Flooding from Rivers and Sea (after accounting for the presence and condition of flood defences)

2%

New addresses created within areas at high/medium Risk of Flooding from Surface Water

Proportion of new addresses created on previous land use group:

Location and number of new residential addresses:

