

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mrs R Ley (deceased)

Respondent: Reigate Ex Service and Social Club

Heard at: Croydon by cloud video platform On: 21 September 2022

Before: Employment Judge Nash

Representation

Claimant: No appearance

Respondent: No appearance

JUDGMENT

The claim is dismissed because the claimant did not attend the hearing.

REASONS

1. This open preliminary hearing was listed in the presence of the parties at a telephone case management hearing on 12 August 2020.
2. The tribunal file showed that on 24 June the claimant's widower Mr M Ley applied to represent her in proceedings. Following correspondence from the tribunal, he wrote again on 8 August.
3. The respondent's former representative had removed itself from the record on 26 April 2020. This was the last communication from the respondent.
4. The tribunal emailed the parties on 20 September 2020 informing them that the hearing had been converted to a video hearing.
5. On the day of the hearing neither party attended the video hearing.
6. The tribunal verified that neither party had attended the tribunal building.
7. The tribunal telephoned Mr Ley on behalf of the claimant on both numbers in the claim form, and the respondent on the number in its response. There was no reply from any number.

8. In the circumstances, the tribunal dismissed the claim.
