

Energy Bill Relief Scheme for Non-Domestic Customers in Great Britain

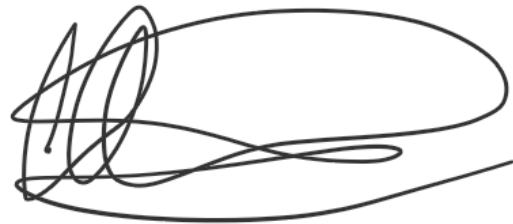

Notice of delegation – electricity scheme

In accordance with regulation 35(2) of the Energy Bill Relief Scheme Regulations 2022 (SI 2022 / 1100) the Secretary of State (i) has made the Energy Bill Relief Scheme (No.2) Rules 2022 (the "discount recovery rules"); and (ii) gives the following notice of delegation of functions under the discount recovery rules in connection with the electricity scheme.

- 1 The functions of the Secretary of State under the discount recovery rules in relation to the electricity scheme include:
 - (a) verifying details from suppliers of bank accounts (discount recovery rules, Part 2, paragraph 4.1);
 - (b) making payment in respect of discount recovery claims to suppliers (discount recovery rules, Part 2, paragraph 5.1(a)); and
 - (c) receiving payment due to the Secretary of State under the Regulations into the Secretary of State's designated account (discount recovery rules, Part 2, paragraph 5.3(b)).
- 2 The Secretary of State has delegated the performance of the functions of the Secretary of State set out in paragraph (1) ("delegated functions") to Elexon Limited of 4th floor 350 Euston Road, London, NW1 3AW (the "Delegate") in accordance with regulation 35(2) of the Energy Bill Relief Scheme Regulations 2022.
- 3 In performing those delegated functions the Delegate will interact with Suppliers in the ways described in regulation 35(2).
- 4 Regulation 35(4) applies to the Delegate.

The Secretary of State may amend or revoke this notice by a further notice.

Signed

Graham Stuart MP
