NOTE

1. The Code of Practice adopted by the Committee provides that:

“All Committee members should declare any personal or business interest which may, or may be perceived (by a reasonable member of the public) to influence their judgement. This should include, as a minimum, personal direct and indirect pecuniary interests, and should normally also include, such interests of close family members and of people living in the e- same household. The register of interests should be kept up-to-date and should be open to the public.

A declaration of any interest should also be made at any Committee meeting if it relates specifically to a particular issue under consideration, for recording in the minutes (whether or not the Committee member also withdraws from the meeting).”

2. Members are requested to declare their interests (including declarations of no interests) in writing to the Secretary (either by using this form or separately) as soon as possible to:
