

REPORTS OF ACUTE HEPATITIS A & E
REPORTS OF CONFIRMED HEPATITIS C

CONFIDENTIAL

Case definitions: acute hepatitis A: anti-HAV IgM positive acute hepatitis E: confirmed by reference laboratory
Confirmed hepatitis C: anti-HCV positive or HCV RNA positive.

Please complete as far as possible, ticking the appropriate boxes.

Patient details

Surname: _____ Forename: _____
Lab no: _____ Soundex / Initials: _____
DOB / age: ____ / ____ / ____ Sex: Male Female NK

Laboratory details

Source lab: _____ Date of first specimen: _____

Type of infection Hepatitis A Hepatitis C Hepatitis E

Was the infection acquired abroad? Yes No NK Country: _____

For hepatitis A or hepatitis C: please tick probable route of acquisition

- Sex between men
- Sex between men and women
- Injecting drug use (including steroids)
- Tattoo
- Surgical / dental treatment
- Mother to child
- Blood products
- Family / household
- Blood transfusion*
- No information
- Occupational (please describe)
- Foodborne (hepatitis A only)
- Other

If patient has been transfused in the UK since 1991 please give further details below

Date / year of transfusion: _____ Region/hospital : _____

Hepatitis C only: anti-HCV negative test in previous 4 years? Yes No NK

Hepatitis A only: is this part of recognised outbreak? Yes No NK

Completed by: _____ Date: _____