At the hearing the court will consider:

- whether (you) the contract holder engaged in, or threatened to engage in or allowed, incited or encouraged any person living or visiting to engage in:
 - a) conduct capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to a person with a right to live in the premises or in accommodation in the locality.
 - b) conduct capable of causing a nuisance or annoyance to a person engaged in lawful activity in the dwelling or the locality of that dwelling.
 - c) conduct capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to the landlord or a person acting in connection with the landlord's housing management functions.
- whether (you) the contract holder used or threatened to use or allowed incited or encouraged any person to use the dwelling, common parts and any other part of the dwelling for criminal purposes.
- whether it is reasonable to make the order.

What you (the defendant(s)) should do

- Get help and advice immediately from a solicitor or an advice agency.
- Help yourself and the court by filling in the defence form and coming to the hearing to make sure the court knows all the facts.

Statement of truth

I understand that proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against a person who makes, or causes to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth without an honest belief in its truth.

I believe that the facts stated in this claim form are true.

The claimant(s) believes that the facts stated in this section and any continuation sheets are true. I am authorised by the claimant(s) to sign this statement.
