

Summary of public health actions

MRU To monitor the different national meningococcal immunisation programmes, it is critical that all IMD positive samples are sent to the MRU for confirmation and characterisation, even for cases where the diagnosis has Local HPTs already been confirmed by PCR. provide advice in cluster or · lead on required PH action in case and outbreak situations contacts follow-up sample submission inform HPT of suspected case ensure appropriate samples have follow-up MENSV01 collect diagnostic samples (9.1.2) been taken contact GP for MENSV03 take throat swab and screen for N. complete the MENSV01 questionnaire questionnaire (3 to 6 months) meningitidis · provide guidance to clinicians on · request immunological followdiagnostic samples up (MENSV04) (where indicated) Local hospital UKHSA Immunisation team

An accessible text-only version of this flowchart is available.

See section 9 of the meningococcal disease enhanced surveillance plan for detailed information on public health actions.