

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Ms Michelle Ogbonna

Respondent: Brook Street (UK) Limited

JUDGMENT

The Claimant's application dated 11 October 2022 for Reconsideration of the Judgment sent to the Parties on 11 October 2022 is refused.

REASONS

There is no reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked, because the Tribunal sent the instructions of how the deposit order could be paid to the claimant when the order was made on 27 January 2022. A copy of this order was sent to the claimant again on 14 June 2022.

At paragraph 7 of the 'Note accompanying deposit order' under the subheading 'How to pay the deposit' it is explicitly laid out as follows:

"Payment of the deposit must be made by cheque or postal order only, made payable to HMCTS. Payments CANNOT be made in cash."

The claimant was provided with a tear off slip detailing the address where either a cheque or postal order may be sent.

As stated in the order payment may be made by cheque or postal order only. Bank transfer, as requested by the claimant, is not an acceptable method of payment. There is no bank account held by the Employment Tribunal to which such a transfer can be made. It is unreasonable for the claimant to request this having been previously informed of acceptable payment methods.

The Judgement of 11 October 2022 stands as originally decided, the claim for indirect age discrimination remains struck out following a failure to comply to with the Tribunal's deposit order.

Employment Judge Nash
18 November 2022