

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Ms B Majendie

Respondent: Bark & Birch Ltd

JUDGMENT

Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013 – Rule 21

1. The respondent has failed to present a valid response on time. The Employment Judge has decided that a determination can properly be made of the claim, in accordance with rule 21 of the Rules of Procedure.
2. The respondent has made an unauthorised deduction from the claimant's wages and is ordered to pay the claimant the gross sum of £4,326.90 (£721.15 x 6 weeks) for March and April 2022.
3. The claimant was dismissed in breach of contract in respect of notice but the claimant fully mitigated her loss so no award of damages is made.
4. The respondent has failed to pay the claimant's holiday entitlement and is ordered to pay the claimant the sum of £2,451.91 (£721.15 per week divided by 5 days x 17 days accrued annual leave on termination).
5. The respondent was in breach of contract by failing to reimburse the claimant for expenses incurred in March and April 2022. Therefore, the respondent is ordered to pay the sum of £591.60.
6. The respondent was in breach of contract by deducting pension contributions from the claimant's pay but not applying the pension contributions to the claimant's pension. The respondent is therefore ordered to pay the claimant £2,500.80 for this breach.

NOTICE

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS (INTEREST) ORDER 1990 ARTICLE 12

Case number: 2406491/2022

Name of case: B Majendie v Bark & Birch Ltd

Interest is payable when an Employment Tribunal makes an award or determination requiring one party to proceedings to pay a sum of money to another party, apart from sums representing costs or expenses.

No interest is payable if the sum is paid in full within 14 days after the date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties. The date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties is called the relevant decision day.

Interest starts to accrue from the day immediately after the relevant decision day. That is called the calculation day.

The rate of interest payable is the rate specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 on the relevant decision day. This is known as the stipulated rate of interest.

The Secretary of the Tribunal is required to give you notice of the relevant decision day, the calculation day, and the stipulated rate of interest in your case. They are as follows:

the relevant decision day in this case is: 19 December 2022

the calculation day in this case is: 20 December 2022

the stipulated rate of interest is: 8% per annum.
