Dear [REDACTED],

I am writing about your email of 23 August 2022, requesting the following information:

I have just purchased an ex military Land rover BFA ambulance military ERM was NF16AA, I would be most grateful if you could search your records to see if you hold any information regarding the units where my vehicle served and any service records that you may hold , this information is for my personal use.

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD), and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held. This is attached, as follows:

Annex A - Ownership History
Annex B - Fault History
Annex C – Service History

Under s16 (Advice and Assistance) I can advise that no other information on this vehicle is held.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information
