

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Danielle Mycroft

Respondent: Optima Care Ltd

Heard at: London South (Remote)

On: 13 May 2022

Before: Employment Judge Kumar

Representation

Claimant: n/a

Respondent: Ms S Wood

JUDGMENT

1. The claim for unauthorised deduction is dismissed upon the non-attendance of the claimant pursuant to Rule 47 of the Employment Tribunal Rules of Procedure 2013.

REASONS

1. The claimant is Danielle Mycroft. The respondent is Otima Care Ltd.
2. The respondent was represented by Ms S Wood, litigation consultant. Mr B Harb attended to give evidence on behalf of the respondent.
3. The claimant failed to attend the hearing.
4. Prior to making the decision the tribunal noted that:
 - a. There was no apparent explanation for the claimant's non-attendance.
 - b. Attempts were made by the tribunal to contact the claimant by telephone but the call went through to a voicemail service.
 - c. No reasons for non-attendance were given in advance of the hearing.
 - d. The hearing was due to start at 2pm and was listed for 2 hours. The claimant did not attend at any time during the hearing window.
 - e. No witness statement had been supplied by the claimant ahead of the hearing.

Employment Judge Kumar

Date 30 June 2022