Subject: Response from The Packaging Federation

Good morning,

The Packaging Federation is the over-arching Trade Federation for the £12 Billion, 20,000+ people UK Packaging Manufacturing Industry.

The Foodservice Packaging Association are members of our Federation and we have adopted their response as the one which reflects the views of our Industry across all its material sectors.

We commend their response (attached) to your attention in the knowledge that is supported in its entirety by our Industry.

I also confirm that our response may be made available to the public and that my name, organisation and contact details may be disclosed similarly.

With best wishes

Dick Searle
