Dear [Redacted],

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: Policing of Badger Culling Costs

Thank you for your request for information of 18 September 2020 about the cost of policing of badger culling. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Your information request and our response are set out below.

Please can you supply the data for up-to-date costs for the policing of badger culling. I would like to know how much it has cost the civil service and what money has been spent on.

We have your data from 2018 which states that the policing of badger culling cost taxpayers more than £3m and that the government allowed culling in 32 areas across 10 counties in England to tackle Bovine tuberculosis.

Unfortunately, no further data and costs can be found on your website.

The information that you have requested is available from the following website and contains policing costs for each year including 2019.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/bovine-tb-government-badger-control-costs>

As the information is reasonably accessible to you by other means, section 21 of the FOIA exempts Defra from providing a copy of the information with this response to your request.

Information disclosed in response to this FOIA request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on GOV.UK, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the GOV.UK website.

We attach Annex A, explaining the copyright that applies to the information being released to you, and Annex B giving contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter please contact me.

Yours sincerely
