Dear ,

Thank you for your email of 6 June 2022, requesting the following information:

'I have recently come into possession of a Range Rover TARC2, on the keyring is a registration 93RN22 (RNAS). I believe this means that it was used by the Royal Navy at one of their air stations.

I am requesting an available information about this vehicle and where it was based.'

Your request has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000.

A search has been carried out of Ministry of Defence (MOD) records, but, despite an intensive search of the archives, we unfortunately do not hold any information about this vehicle.

You may also wish to contact the National Museum of the Royal Navy who might be able to assist your research further. The contact details for the museum are below. It is, however, possible that the Museum may charge to use its services.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.
