Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 7 May 2022 to the Ministry of Defence (MOD), requesting the following information:

“Please can you provide the information under the FOIA now”

For reference, the questions requested are as below relating to the remaining 38 claims not previously requested:

- “4. Of those ME/CFS claims where an award under AFCS was not made, how many were refused an award because ME/CFS has an unknown aetiology?”*
- 5. How many of the above have been reviewed under Art 59 “mistake in law” after the Tribunal case for Nicola Hornsby-Clifton held that being of unknown aetiology was not a basis to refuse an AFCS award for ME/CFS?”*
- 6. Of those who were given an AFCS award for ME/CFS, how many of those awards were reduced or set taking into account the concept of the “illness beliefs” of the claimant, or something similar?”*
- 7. How many of the above have been/will be reviewed under Art 59 “mistake in law” after the Tribunal in the claim of Nicola Hornsby-Clifton Tier recently held that “illness beliefs” for ME/CFS should be included in award calculation under Art 5 of the AFCS Order?”*

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the MOD and I can confirm all the information in scope of your request is held.

In answer to Question 4 I can confirm that none of the 38 AFCS claims have been refused because ME/CFS has an unknown aetiology.

I can confirm that none of the 38 cases have been reviewed under Article 59 due to a “mistake in law” to answer Question 5.

To answer Question 6, no awards were made taking into account the “illness beliefs” of the claimant.

In answer to your final Question no cases have been reviewed under Article 59 because ME/CFS should be included in award calculation under Article 5 of the AFCS Order.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk).
