Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 20 June 2022 in which you requested the following information:

“please can you tell me if you have any photographs of the dry ski slope that used to be on the premises of Woolwich Barracks, Home of the Royal Artillery, Repository Rd, London SE18 4BH.

Do you have any photographs of the summer sports scheme that was run there in conjunction with Greenwich Council, where local young people were taught to ski?

Could you send me any photos you have of the above, which were taken between 1981 and 1985.

If you do not have photos of young people learning to ski between those dates, please could you send me alternative photos showing the dry ski slopes in general use”

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. I am writing to advise you that following a search of our recorded information, I have established that the information you requested is not held by the Ministry of Defence.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. Following this, if you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner’s Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner’s website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,
