Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 30 June 2022 requesting the following information:

' Please provide military history of Land Rover 05 KD 56'

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that, despite a thorough search of our archives, no information in scope of your request is held.

Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) of the FOI Act, we believe this vehicle went out of service before the introduction of the Merlin database. You may wish to contact the Royal Logistic Corps Museum who might be able to assist your research further. The contact details for the museum is below. It is, however, possible that the Museum may charge to use their services.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
