

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr S Fadden

Respondent: Avensure Ltd

JUDGMENT

The claimant's remaining claim for unlawful deductions from wages is struck out.

REASONS

1. By a letter dated 13 January 2023 the Tribunal gave the claimant an opportunity to make representations or to request a hearing, as to why the claim should not be struck out because
 - the claimant had not complied with the Orders of the Tribunal made at the hearing on 28 June 2021; and of the letter of 28 February 2022.
 - it has not been actively pursued.
2. The claimant replied on 20 January 2023 apologising , and explaining why he had not been able to give the matter his full attention , and asking for his claim of unlawful deductions from wages to be heard if at all possible.
3. The Tribunal wrote further to the claimant on 2 February 2023 telling him that he must set out in precise terms what he is claiming, and where that has been set out in the claim form or other documents , and must also provide a full explanation of why he has not complied with the Tribunal's orders. He was required to reply by 9 February 2023.
4. The claimant has not replied, and thus has failed to make any sufficient representations, why claim this should not be struck out , or to request a hearing. The claim is therefore struck out.
5. The hearing fixed for 27 February 2023 will not take place.
