

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNAL

Claimant Mr B Miljovic

Respondent DRUM Risk Limited

JUDGMENT

The Claimant's application dated 23 January 2023 for reconsideration of the Judgment, sent to the parties on 11 January 2023, striking out his unfair dismissal claim is refused.

REASONS

The reason for striking out the claim was because the Tribunal does not have jurisdiction to hear it as the claimant had less than 2 years' continuous employment. The Tribunal is therefore not permitted to consider the specific circumstances of the dismissal or the behaviour of the respondent, as has been requested in the application. On that basis, the application does not disclose any arguable basis for a reconsideration of the judgment in the interests of justice. There is therefore no reasonable prospects of the original decision being varied or revoked.
