 - (b) which meets the needs and satisfies the interests of as many different available audiences as practicable as regards the nature of the audiovisual content made available and the subject-matters covered by it,
- and that range of audiovisual content includes material satisfying the requirements in subsection (5).
- (5) The requirements in this subsection are—

Must-offer and must-carry obligations

362AI Must-offer obligations in the case of designated internet programme services

- (1) The regulatory regime for every licensed public service channel includes the conditions that OFCOM consider appropriate for securing the objectives set out in subsections (2) to (4).
- (2) The first objective is that any designated internet programme service provided by the provider of the channel is at all times offered as available (subject to the need to agree terms) to be, in relation to every regulated television selection service, included in the regulated television selection service.

- (3) The second objective is that the provider of the channel does its best to secure that arrangements are entered into, and kept in force, that ensure that any designated internet programme service provided by the provider of the channel is, in relation to every regulated television selection service, included in the regulated television selection service.
- (4) The third objective is that the provider of the channel acts consistently with the agreement objectives when entering into such arrangements and while they are in force.
- (5) In this section “the agreement objectives” are—
 - (a) that a designated internet programme service is given an appropriate degree of prominence within a regulated television selection service;
 - (b) that arrangements made between the provider of a designated internet programme service and the provider of a regulated television selection service are consistent with the former being able to meet costs reasonably incurred in fulfilling the public service remit for the licensed public service channel in question or (as the case may be) S4C’s public service remit;
 - (c) that arrangements so made do not disproportionately restrict how the provider of a regulated television selection service may make innovations in the ways that users may select and access internet programme services or programmes included in such services.
- (6) The reference in subsection (5)(a) to a designated internet programme service being given an appropriate degree of prominence within a regulated television selection service includes a reference to an appropriate degree of prominence being given to public service remit content and any listed channel provided by that designated internet programme service, so far as the prominence of that content or channel is affected by the operation of the regulated television selection service.
- (7) The following are listed channels for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) any service of television programmes provided by the BBC so as to be available for reception by members of the public;

 - (a) in respect of each designated internet programme service, enter into arrangements with the provider of the designated internet programme service for the regulated television selection service to include that designated internet programme service, and
 - (b) keep them in force.
- (2) The provider of a regulated television selection service must act consistently with the agreement objectives when entering into arrangements in pursuance of subsection (1) and while they are in force.

- (3) For provision applying where there is a dispute about the arrangements that should be made or their operation, see sections 362AQ to 362AV.

362AK Guidance as regards agreement objectives

- (1) OFCOM must prepare and publish guidance about how public service broadcasters and providers of regulated television selection services may act consistently with the agreement objectives.

- (4) In exercising or deciding whether to exercise any of their powers under sections 362AR to 362AU, OFCOM must have regard to any guidance for the time being published under this section.

Duties relating to a regulated television selection service

362AL Duties relating to a regulated television selection service

- (1) A provider of a regulated television selection service must secure that the manner in which its service presents internet programme services to its users in the United Kingdom gives an appropriate degree of prominence to each of the designated internet programme services included in its service.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not require that a designated internet programme service be given prominence, or the same degree of prominence, in relation to every area of the United Kingdom.
- (3) The reference in subsection (1) to giving an appropriate degree of prominence to a designated internet programme service included in a regulated television selection service includes a reference to giving an appropriate degree of prominence to public service remit content and any listed channel provided by that designated internet programme service, so far as the prominence of that content or channel is affected by the operation of the regulated television selection service.
- (4) A provider of a regulated television selection service must incorporate features in the service that secure that persons with disabilities, in particular those affecting their sight or hearing or both—
 - (a) are able, so far as practicable, to make use of the service for all the same purposes as persons without disabilities; and
 - (b) are informed about, and are able to make use of, whatever assistance for disabled people is provided in relation to the internet programme services included in the service.
- (5) In this section “assistance for disabled people” has the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 362(1)).

362AM Code of practice

362AN Effects of the code of practice

- (2) A failure by the provider of a regulated television selection service to act in accordance with a provision of the code of practice does not of itself make the provider liable to legal proceedings before a court or tribunal.
- (3) In any legal proceedings before a court or tribunal, the court or tribunal must take into account a provision of the code of practice in determining any question arising in the proceedings if—
 - (a) the question relates to a time when the provision was in force, and
 - (b) the provision appears to the court or tribunal to be relevant to the question.
- (4) OFCOM must take into account a provision of the code of practice in determining any question arising in connection with the carrying out by them of a relevant function if—

 - (iv) such other persons as OFCOM consider appropriate;
 - (c) may make such alterations to the draft as OFCOM consider appropriate following the consultation.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to revisions of the code of practice if—
- (a) if OFCOM give the Secretary of State a draft of the revisions of the existing code, and
 - (b) the Secretary of State agrees that it is not necessary for subsection (1) to apply in relation to the revisions.

“SCHEDULE 15ZA

PROMINENCE ON TELEVISION SELECTION SERVICES: FINANCIAL PENALTIES

Interpretation

- 1 References in this Schedule to a penalty are to—
(a) a penalty imposed by a confirmation decision (see section 362AX(8));
(b) a penalty imposed by a penalty notice under section 362AZ1(2).

Amount of penalties: principles

- 2 (1) In determining the amount of a penalty to be imposed on a person, OFCOM must, in particular, take into account—
 - (a) any representations made, and evidence provided, by the person, and
 - (b) the effects of the failure or failures in respect of which the penalty is imposed.
- (2) In the case of a penalty imposed by a confirmation decision, OFCOM must also take into account any representations made, and evidence provided, by any other person to whom the provisional notice of contravention relating to the same matter was given.
- (3) OFCOM must also take into account—
 - (a) in the case of a penalty imposed by a confirmation decision, any steps taken by the person towards—
 - (i) complying with the duty or duties specified in the provisional notice of contravention given to the person, or
 - (ii) remedying the failure to comply with that duty or those duties;
 - (b) in the case of a penalty imposed by a penalty notice, any steps taken by the person towards—
 - (i) complying with the duty or duties specified in the confirmation decision given to the person, or
 - (ii) remedying the failure to comply with that duty or those duties.
- (4) A penalty must be of an amount that OFCOM consider to be—
 - (a) appropriate, and
 - (b) proportionate to the failure or failures in respect of which it is imposed.
- (5) See also section 392 (which requires OFCOM to produce guidelines about their determination of penalties that they impose).

Maximum amount of penalties

- 3 (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where—
 - (a) a penalty is imposed on a person in respect of a regulated television selection service that is or was at any time provided by that person, and
 - (b) that person has an accounting period.
- (2) The maximum amount of the penalty that may be imposed is whichever is the greater of—
 - (a) £250,000, and
 - (b) 5% of the person's qualifying worldwide revenue for the person's most recent complete accounting period.
- (3) In any case other than that described in sub-paragraph (1), the maximum amount of the penalty that may be imposed is £250,000.

- (4) If (in a case described in sub-paragraph (1)) the first accounting period of the person has not yet ended, sub-paragraph (2)(b) is to be read as referring to 5% of the amount that OFCOM estimate to be the person's likely qualifying worldwide revenue for that period.
- (5) If the duration of the accounting period by reference to which an amount of qualifying worldwide revenue is calculated is less than a year, the amount mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) is to be increased proportionately.
- (6) If the duration of the accounting period by reference to which an amount of qualifying worldwide revenue is more than a year, the amount mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) is to be decreased proportionately.
- (7) The amount of a person's qualifying worldwide revenue for an accounting period is, in the event of a disagreement between the person and OFCOM, the amount determined by OFCOM.

 - (ii) every other entity which (at the time the confirmation decision or the penalty notice is given) is a group undertaking in relation to entity E.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3)(b), the reference to the qualifying worldwide revenue of a group of entities is to—
 - (a) the amount of the group's qualifying worldwide revenue for the most recent complete accounting period of the entities liable for the penalty, or
 - (b) if the first accounting period of the entities liable for the penalty has not yet ended, the amount that OFCOM estimate to be the group's likely qualifying worldwide revenue for that period.

- (5) In a case where the accounting periods of the entities liable for the penalty are different—
- (a) the reference in sub-paragraph (4)(a) to the accounting period of the entities is to be read as a reference to the accounting period of any of the entities (at OFCOM's discretion), and
 - (b) sub-paragraph (4)(b) is to apply as if—
 - (i) for “the first accounting period of the entities” there were substituted “the first accounting period of all the entities”, and
