JUDGMENT

1. The claimant's claim (which can properly be understood only as a claim for damages for breach of contract or a sum due under a contract) has no reasonable prospect of success. There is no good reason why it should not be struck out. As a result, that claim is struck out.
2. There being no other claim made in these proceedings, and there being no other viable claim which could be made on the facts stated in the ET1 claim form as explained by the claimant orally on 23 February 2023, the claims made in these proceedings are dismissed.

Notes
