

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Dr C Johnson (registered as Dr I Ivanov)

Respondent: Aintree University Hospital NHS Foundation Trust

JUDGMENT

The claim is struck out.

REASONS

1. By a letter dated 18 January 2023 the Tribunal gave the claimant an opportunity to make representations or to request a hearing, as to why the claim should not be struck out because the manner in which the proceedings have been conducted by or on behalf of the claimant had been scandalous, unreasonable or vexatious, in that the claimant had failed to attend the second day of the final hearing on 17 January 2023 having made an unsuccessful application for that hearing to be postponed.
2. The letter required the claimant to provide specific medical evidence supporting his contention that he had been unable to attend the hearing due to medical reasons. Whilst the claimant has provided some further correspondence and a further brief letter from his GP, he has failed to provide medical evidence which complies with the order made by the Tribunal.
3. The Judge has taken into account additional representations made by the claimant in correspondence but considers that these do not, given the circumstances and history of this case, contain any good reason why the case should not be struck out. The claimant has not requested a hearing.
4. Therefore, of the Tribunal's own motion, and under Rule 37 Employment Tribunal Rules of Procedure 2013 the claim is struck out due to the fact that the claimant has conducted the proceedings in an unreasonable manner and has failed to comply with the requirement to provide medical evidence set out in the Tribunal's letter of 18 January 2023.
