

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Miss N Ostler

Respondent: 1. Brendan Leahy
2. Leahys Taverns Ltd

Heard at: Leeds Employment Tribunal (via CVP)

On: 19 April 2023

Before: Employment Judge K Armstrong

Representation

Claimant: No attendance
Respondent 1: No attendance
Respondent 2: No attendance

The claimant notified the Tribunal by email dated 30 March 2023 that she would not be attending the hearing and requested that her claim be determined in her absence.

The respondent did not attend the hearing at 10.00am. The Tribunal contacted the first respondent (who is also the director of the second respondent) by telephone, spoke with him and provided the link to the video hearing to his updated email address, but he was unable to join by video. He was provided with a telephone number to join by telephone at 10.22am but did not do so. The hearing room was closed at 10.35am.

The first respondent stated by email that the second respondent is in liquidation however on checking the companies house register it appears that the company is still active, although subject to an active proposal to strike off.

The Tribunal proceeded to determine the claimant's claims in her absence, under rule 47 of the Employment Tribunal Rules.

JUDGMENT

1. The claimant's claims against both respondents are dismissed.
