Google launches Bard chatbot as it rushes to catch up with AI rivals

Alex Hern
Technology editor

Google's Bard chatbot launched yesterday in the UK and US as the company completed its dash to release a competitor to Bing Chat and ChatGPT.

It is seen as a critical moment for the company, whose profitable web search service risks being outcompeted by artificial intelligence (AI) chatbots – even if those chatbots currently have problems in consistently returning accurate and useful results.

Describing the service as an “experiment”, Jack Krawczyk, the product lead for Bard, said Google was “extremely excited ... watching how people are using this product in a way that’s boosting their creativity. It’s helping them accelerate their ideas, and is helping them really fuel their curiosity.”

He added: “We feel like we’ve reached the limit of the testing phase of this experiment and now we want to gradually begin to roll it out. We’re at the very beginning of that pivot from research to reality.”

Like its peers, Bard lets users type queries in normal English and is capable of answering detailed questions, giving creative answers to difficult prompts and engaging in back-and-forth conversations. Would-be users can sign up for access via a waiting list on Google’s website.

In a live demo, Krawczyk showed Bard helping him brainstorm ideas for a birthday party for his son that combines his two obsessions, rabbits and gymnastics. Using a feature that allows you to click between three answers, he narrowed down to one suggestion and asked the chatbot to generate an email invitation and insert the address of the venue.

The unplanned follow-up was less impressive. Asked to list ideas for two children on holiday in Tokyo, Bard suggested a trip to Tsukiji fish market – but failed to mention that a substantial part of the market moved to a new venue in 2018. In a subsequent question the chatbot acknowledged this, providing footnotes to the correct information.

“The answers aren’t going to be perfect along the way,” Krawczyk said, adding that for some queries a conventional Google search would work best. “What I would expect as people are using Bard is that search will continue to be a complement.”

Google announced Bard in February, in response to the runaway success of ChatGPT. A few days later, Microsoft went one further, revealing and launching Bing Chat, powered by OpenAI’s GPT-4 language model.

Unlike those two systems, Bard is based on Google’s own language model, LaMDA, which hit the headlines last June after an engineer, Blake Lemoine, was put on leave for publishing transcripts that he said showed the system was sentient.

The company has long been a forerunner in AI research. But it has struggled to ship products based on that work, which insiders have blamed on a mix of organisational issues and a fear that AI could harm its profitable core businesses.

Google did not answer a question on how much more a Bard query costs to process than a conventional search. External estimates range from a 10- to a 100-fold increase in costs, yet Bard has no advertising and no obvious revenue sources.

Google’s rivals have their own hurdles in producing software fit for millions of users. On Monday, a privacy breach at OpenAI meant users saw other people’s chat histories. The company shut down the service while it tackled the breach, and as of yesterday morning the history feature was still offline for many users.

Such flaws could harm the company’s effort to position itself as a provider of services to corporate customers such as PwC, which last week signed a deal to use an OpenAI-backed legal chatbot called Harvey.

OpenAI did not reply to a request for comment about the breach.

4. Entry to [REDACTED], which is a flat above the shops on the main road, was gained by a gate in-between the buildings. The intercom was pressed and Caroline answered. I informed her who I was and she replied: “what the hell do you want”. I stated that I had some papers for her and she said she would be down in a few moments. She came to the door and at the same time began filming on her mobile phone. She then asked for ID to which I said I didn’t have my warrant card on me but would be 2 minutes while I went back to the car. I returned back to the premises and produced my ID card. She then accepted the paperwork from me to which she replied “it’s all a load of rubbish” and stated she had already been reading it. She then very quickly slammed the front door.

5. Copies of the above listed documents have already been filed with the Court, save for the covering letter, a copy of which is attached.

I believe that the facts stated in this witness statement are true. I understand that proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against anyone who makes, or causes to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth without an honest belief in its truth.

CLAIMANTS' SKELETON ARGUMENT FOR DIRECTIONS

Introduction

1. This application for directions arises from the Order of Mr Justice Julian Knowles made on 20 September 2022 (“Injunction Order”) [AB/8-27].
2. The history of this application may be stated briefly. Following the Claimants’ application, two directions hearings, a precursor geographically constrained interim injunction (“Cash’s Pit Injunction”) and a directions order [AB/1-7] (“Directions Order”), Mr Justice Julian Knowles heard the Claimants’ application for an interim injunction to restrain trespass and nuisance across the Claimants’ land (the “HS2 Land”) on 26 – 27 May 2022. The hearing was contested, and the learned judge’s judgment sets out comprehensively the issues he determined [2022] EWHC 2360 (KB).
3. An application for permission to appeal the Injunction Order was made by Mr Knaggs (D6), and refused by the Court of Appeal by order made on 9 December 2022. Coulson LJ issued a ruling on the application (“Ruling”).
4. The Injunction Order was made with immediate effect and until 23.59 on 31 May 2023 [IO/3] and subject to a yearly review requirement. By [IO/15], the Claimants are responsible for arranging that yearly review hearing. The Claimants have made contact with the Court, and Notice of Hearing Date [AB/117] was issued on 13 January 2023. This application for directions relates to that review hearing (“Review”).
5. [IO/15] also provides that the Claimants shall “place details of any such hearing on the HS2 Proceedings Website”. It is arguable therefore that the learned judge considered that such placement was sufficient to serve notice of the Review on interested parties, particularly given:

- a. Service of the Injunction Order was “extensive and inventive” [J/229]
- b. The dates for the review hearing are given as between 15 – 31 May in [IO/15]
- c. Interested Parties have been able to register on the HS2 Proceedings Website to receive emails notifying them of updates to the website.

Submissions on Directions

6. However, notwithstanding the position set out above, the Claimants seek directions in substantively the same terms as the Directions Order for the Review. The reason is that Claimants are likely to seek certain amendments to the Injunction Order (which may also necessitate permission to amend the Particulars of Claim), which may include:
 - a. the removal of certain defendants;
 - b. potentially, the addition of new defendants;
 - c. the removal of references to the Cash’s Pit Land and Cash’s Pit Defendants from the Injunction Order;
 - d. the updating of the meaning of “the HS2 Land” as defined in the Injunction Order; and
 - e. clarifications to the text of the Order and Annexes to address concerns which have arisen since the Injunction Order was granted.
7. The service provisions for the Injunction Order were considered on the papers by the Court of Appeal. The Ruling makes plain that the service provisions in the Injunction Order were appropriate, indeed, “...more than sufficient to comply with the guidance in Canada Goose” [CR/43]. As those service provisions were a continuation of the earlier provisions, challenging those provisions would be “an abuse of the court process” [CR/42].
8. In particular, the Ruling recognised [CR/44] that “[g]iven the scope of the Injunction, it is clearly impractical for service to be effected along every piece of injunctioned land”.
9. The reason for the amendment to the website address relevant to the Injunction Order is simply to improve the functionality of the online hosting of the proceedings, as set out in the Tenth Witness Statement of Julie Dilcock dated 3 March 2023 which accompanies this application for directions. As Ms Dilcock sets out, the provisions in place to ensure notification of the updated website address are:

- a. Placing a copy of the directions order made by the Court on the HS2 Proceedings Website.
- b. Placing a notice on the HS2 Proceedings Website stating that in the future, documents will be uploaded to the RWI Updated Website, and including in that notice a link to the RWI Updated Website.
- c. Retaining the HS2 Proceedings Website unless and until given permission by the Court to delete that website.
- d. Copying the documents already uploaded to the HS2 Proceedings Website to the RWI Updated Website.
- e. Anyone who had registered their email address on the HS2 Proceedings Website for notifications will be updated when the directions order and notice are uploaded to the HS2 Proceedings Website. In that manner, anyone who has been interested in the proceedings and registered will automatically receive a notification.

10. Each of these provisions are sufficient such that anyone who wants to access the Review documents (and any further documents relating to these proceedings) will be able to do so with minimal inconvenience.

The Draft Directions

11. As to each of the paragraphs of the proposed draft Order:

Definitions

12. Paragraph 1 provides defined terms in the draft Order. These match the defined terms of the Injunction Order so far as relevant. The Court will note that a new definition of “RWI Updated Website” has been introduced. The purpose of this new definition is to define an updated website address to host the documents relevant to the Review and any documents relating to the wider proceedings in the future.

Service by Alternative Method – Review Documents

13. The Claimants seek directions for alternative service, pursuant to CPR 6.27.
14. Paragraphs 2 to 4 contain provisions for alternative service. By CPR 6.20, the Review Documents must be served personally as against persons unknown (as the other methods of service listed in CPR 6.20 are not applicable to such persons) or by “any method authorised by the court under rule 6.27”.
15. There is no substantive difference between the proposed provisions in this draft Order and the Directions Order for the underlying application.
16. The Court is asked to make a direction for alternative service for the following reasons:
 - a. The Defendants are itinerant activists, known to move from place to place.
 - b. The Defendants tend not to have fixed abodes, places of work or other permanent addresses whereby the Claimants would be able to serve them in a reasonable and proportionate time.
 - c. The Claimants submit that in circumstances where individuals have already breached and been committed in relation to the Cash’s Pit Injunction, there is a real risk that the Defendants will seek to evade service simply to run up costs for the Claimants.
 - d. As set out above in submissions, the alternative service provisions proposed have already been found to be sufficient to comply with the relevant tests by the High Court and the Court of Appeal.
17. Paragraphs 5 - 15 seek to provide for effective case management of this application. These paragraphs provide the default position, and whilst a party is explicitly not prevented from making an application to adduce late evidence, or to address the Court, the need for an application will allow the Court discretion, and put the parties on notice of the consequences of such an application.
18. Paragraphs 16 – 18 provide the website address for any document relating to the underlying proceedings.

19. Paragraphs 19 – 20 provide for contact details for the Court and the Claimants.

Conclusion

20. Subject to any amendments the Court considers appropriate, the Court is respectfully asked to make the directions order as drafted.

TENTH WITNESS STATEMENT OF JULIE AMBER DILCOCK

I, JULIE AMBER DILCOCK, of High Speed Two (HS2) Limited, Two Snow Hill, Snow Hill Queensway, Birmingham, B4 6GA WILL SAY as follows:

1. I am a solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales and employed by the First Claimant as Head Counsel - L&P Disputes. My role involves advising the First Claimant and instructing and assisting external legal advisers advising and representing the First Claimant and in that capacity my role includes instructing our external legal advisers, DLA Piper UK LLP, in relation to the conduct of these proceedings. I am authorised to make this, my Tenth Witness Statement, on behalf of the Claimants.
2. This statement has been prepared with the Claimants' legal representatives.
3. I make this witness statement in support of the Claimants' application for directions (the "Directions Application") for the conduct of these proceedings up to the hearing that has been listed for 16.05.2023 (the "Review Hearing"). This statement contains matters that are within my own knowledge, whether directly or resulting from matters reported to me – both orally and in writing. Where matters are based upon information received from a third party I identify the third party source and why I believe the truth of the matters stated.
4. In the Directions Application, the Claimants seek a direction for service of documents relating to the Review Hearing and these proceedings going forward more generally. As the court will see, the directions for service proposed by the Claimants in the draft order are almost identical to those ordered by Mr. Justice Julian Knowles in a prior directions order dated 28.04.2022 (the "April 2022 Directions Order").
5. As part of the service provisions previously authorised by the court in the April 2022 Directions Order, documents relating to these proceedings to date have been uploaded to the website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/hs2-route-wide-injunction-proceedings> (defined as: the "HS2 Proceedings Website" in the Order of Mr Justice Julian Knowles dated 20.09.2022). The Claimants seek a direction to host documents going forward on the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/hs2-route-wide-injunction-proceedings> (the "RWI Updated Website"). In this statement, I have set out the reasons for the requested change.

6. It has been explained to me by the Head of Digital Media and Content for the First Claimant that the .gov.uk website has two different types of document hosting webpages: publications and collections. Publications are designed to hold smaller numbers of documents – typically up to 100. Collections can hold many, many more documents. The current HS2 Proceedings Website is a publications type webpage. At the time of writing this statement it has 109 documents uploaded to it and has almost reached capacity. It is not therefore an option to continue to use it to host substantial volumes of documents going forward.

7. The RWI Updated Website has been created but is not yet live and is a collections type webpage. It will have the capacity to hold both the documents already on the HS2 Proceedings Website and all further documents in these proceedings.

8. If permission is granted by the court, the Claimants will:
 - 8.1. Place a copy of the directions order made by the Court on the HS2 Proceedings Website.
 - 8.2. Place a notice on the HS2 Proceedings Website that in future documents will be uploaded to the RWI Updated Website and include a link to the RWI Updated Website.
 - 8.3. Retain the HS2 Proceedings Website unless and until the court considers that at some future date it is no longer necessary to do so.
 - 8.4. Place copies of all the documents already uploaded to the HS2 Proceedings Website on the RWI Updated Website.

9. Anyone who has registered on the HS2 Proceedings Website for notifications when that page is updated will receive notifications when steps 7.1 and 7.2 are completed and will therefore be alerted to the existence of the new RWI Updated Website and can also register for notifications on that page.

Statement of Truth

I believe that the facts in this witness statements are true. I understand that proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against anyone who makes, or causes to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth without an honest belief in its truth.
